BONDED WAREHOUSE ACCOUNT.

QUANTITIES of the PRINCIPAL ARTICLES IMPORTED (subject to Duty) IN WAREHOUSE on 31st December 1860; RECEIVED INTO, and DELIVERED FROM WAREHOUSE in the Year 1861; and REMAINING IN WAREHOUSE on 31st December 1861, at the PRINCIPAL BONDING PORTS in the UNITED KINGDOM.

IN THE YEAR

1861.

NOTE.—As inaccuracies are sometimes supposed to occur in this Account, because discrepancies appear, if the Stock remaining in Warehouse be compared with the difference between the Total Imports of an Article and the subsequent Exports and Entries for Home Consumption, the following explanations are given to show that this Account is not susceptible of verification in the manner described:

In the compilation of the Bonded Warehouse Account, every document is used which substantiates a receipt or delivery under any circumstances, and this Account therefore presents an accurate view of the Stock in Warehouse both at the commencement and termination of the period which it embraces.

The column headed "Received into the Warehouse during the Year" includes:—

The Articles which, having been warehoused at one Port, were removed and re-warehoused at another; and under the head of "Wine" it also includes the increase of quantity caused by the addition of Spirits for the purpose of fortifying the Wine in Warehouse.

The column headed "Delivered from the Warehouse during the Year" includes:—

The Articles which, having been warehoused at one Port, were removed and re-warehoused at another.

The Deliveries of the respective Articles for Home Consumption, on payment of Duty.

The Exports of the respective Articles, less the Quantities exported on Drawback or otherwise, subsequently to the payment of Duty.

The Quantities of certain Articles delivered free of Duty for removal to the Victualling Stores of Her Majesty's Dockyards, or for the use of the Officers of Her Majesty's Navy and Army; and the Quantities delivered free of Duty to be used as Ships' Stores on board Merchant and Passenger Vessels, as shown in the Supplemental Account, p. 468.

The Quantities of Tea, Tobacco, Pepper, and other Articles taken out of Warehouse to be destroyed in cases of damage.

Under the head of "Brandy" the Quantities used in fortifying Wine in Bond.

Under the head of "Rum" the Quantities Mixed in Bond, with other Spirits, either British or Foreign, to be eventually exported under the denomination of "Mixed Spirits."

As regards the Quantities of Articles Entered for Home Consumption, which are shown in the General Import Account, it is to be remembered that they comprise the Quantities charged with Duty, and passed into consumption immediately on their delivery from the Ship, as well as the Quantities taken out of Warehouse for Home Consumption.

INTRODUCTORY AND EXPLANATORY REPORT.

In presenting the Judicial Statistics for 1861 few introductory remarks appear to be required. The arrangement of the Tables, which was originally settled pursuant to the instructions of the Secretary of State, will be found to have been maintained both in the first and in the second parts.

The Police, the Criminal Proceedings, and the Prisons constitute the first part of the Statistics as in the preceding years. The Preliminary Observations also are continued as heretofore; they serve to bring prominently forward and place conveniently before the view, the most striking results, and thus to save to the casual inquirer the expenditure of time and labour necessary for the calculations from which the results are deduced. For persons having special objects of inquiry in view, the Tables are at hand for further reference.

In the Police Returns a stricter definition of the persons classed as known thieves and depredators has been adopted, which will be found more particularly referred to at p. viii.

The consolidation of the Criminal Law which was effected in the last session of Parliament will not probably render necessary any change in the classification of crimes which has hitherto been followed in the Criminal Tables. The mitigation of the capital sentence which has taken place under the new law will be found noticed under the head of Criminal Proceedings at p. xxiii. The effect of the greater severity which has been introduced with regard to larceny and some other crimes will remain to be seen in future years.

POLICE AND CONSTABULARY.

Police and Constabulary

The Police Returns for the year ending the 29th September 1861 show, as compared with the preceding year, an increase in the Police and Constabulary Force of the country, and in their cost; a decrease in the number of the criminal classes at large and known to the Police, and in the number of houses of bad character which they frequent; an inconsiderable increase in the number of the indictable offences reported by the Police, with a larger increase in the number of apprehensions, and of the commitments which followed; and also an increase in the number of summary convictions.

Amount of the Police, (Table, p. 1.)

The total number of the Police and Constabulary was on the 29th September 1861 :

Commissioners and Assistant Commissioners	4
Chief Constables of Counties	56
Head Constables of Boroughs	116
Superintendents	509
Inspectors	712
Serjeants	2,075
Constables	17,498
Additional Constables (appointed for special purposes)	288
Detective Officers	155
Total Police and Constabulary	21,413

POLICE AND CONSTABULARY.

Increase of the Force.

The increase in the total number of the Force throughout the country for the past year, above the number for the preceding year, amounts to 653, or 3·1 per cent. The Commissioner and two Assistant Commissioners of the Metropolitan Police, the Commissioner of Police of the City of London, and the fifty-six Chief Constables of Counties or Divisions, remaining as before, an increase will be found in all the other ranks, viz., in Head Constables of Boroughs, an increase of 9; in Superintendents, of 11; in Inspectors, of 7; in Serjeants, of 106; in Constables, of 645, or 3·8 per cent. With the foregoing increase the Returns show a decrease of 120 or 29·3 per cent. in the number of additional Constables appointed for special purposes; and of 5 in the number of Detective Officers, leaving the total increase for the year, 653, as above stated.

Composition of the Force.

The total Force was composed as follows,—

Constables of Boroughs appointed under the Municipal Corporation Act of 1835	6,135
County Constables appointed under the Constabulary Acts of 1839 and 1840	7,829
Metropolitan Police Constables appointed under the Police Act of 1829	6,158
Her Majesty's Dockyard, &c. Police	663
Constables for the City of London appointed under the City Local Act of 1839	628
Total Police and Constabulary	21,413

The foregoing Table shows an increase of 53 in the number of Constables of Boroughs, and of 68 in the number of County Constables. In the number of the Metropolitan Police (exclusive of the number employed for the service of Her Majesty's Dockyards, &c.) there is a decrease of 131 as compared with the number for the preceding year. By the Act passed in the Session of 1860, such number of the Metropolitan Police as the Secretary of State shall direct, may be authorized to act under the Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police, for the service of Her Dockyard Police.

Majesty's Dockyards, the principal stations of the War Department, and within fifteen miles of such yards and stations. The force thus employed, numbering 663, is composed of 6 Superintendents, 29 Inspectors, 92 Serjeants, and 536 Constables.

For the City of London the strength of the Force remained the same as for the preceding year.

General efficiency of the Force.

In the Counties, with scarcely an exception, and in the larger Boroughs generally (although in several of the latter the Force is still defective), the Police is now considered to be maintained in a state of efficiency both as to numbers and discipline,

Smaller boroughs defective.

and to be equal to the duties required. Some of the smaller Boroughs, however, give cause of complaint, where the authorities, by neglecting to amalgamate for Police purposes with the surrounding county, appear to be opposed no less to the public benefit than to their own advantage and security. It cannot be supposed that an isolated Policeman, or even two or three, can have the same control over the criminal classes among a population of perhaps two, or three, or four thousand, that would be exercised by the organized County Police. By the exclusion of the latter, therefore, a refuge is established where the thieves and depredators, driven from the better watched county districts, can, in comparative security, lay plans for theft and plunder to be carried into execution beyond the borough limits, knowing that unless detected in the fact they may return to their asylum, defying pursuit by the County Constabulary, and little apprehensive of detection otherwise.

Proportion of police to Population.

Deducting from the total Police and Constabulary for the year the number of the Dockyard Police, whose services are confined to the special purpose of watching the dockyards, &c., and protecting the property contained therein, the force for the general duties of the Counties and Boroughs, including the Metropolitan District, is reduced to 20,750, which, for the increased population shown by the recent census, gives one Constable for every 966 of the total population; the proportion calculated on the population according to the census of 1851 having been, as stated last year, 1 to 870.

In the under-mentioned places and Counties the number in proportion to the population, calculated on the new census, is as follows. In the City of London (which however may be considered exceptional, and where a decrease appears in the resident population amounting to 15,622 or 12·2 per cent.) the Police are in the proportion of 1 to 178; in the Metropolitan Police district they are 1 to 504; for the town and port of Liverpool, 1 to 442; in Bristol, 1 to 510; in Manchester, 1 to 515; in Kingston-upon-Hull, 1 to 690; in Hereford, 1 to 710; in Birmingham, 1 to 785; in Norwich, 1 to 826; in Leamington, 1 to 829; in Leeds, 1 to 908; in Brighton, 1 to 936; in Southampton, 1 to 1,092; in Exeter, 1 to 1,163; in Lincoln, 1 to 1,167; in Scarborough, 1 to 1,670; in Oldham, 1 to 2,494; in Berwick-upon-Tweed, 1 to 3,313; in the County of Cambridge, 1 to 1,082; in Berks, 1 to 1,101; in Wilts, where there has been a decrease in the population, 1 to 1,182; in Hants, 1 to 1,251; in Bucks, 1 to 1,332; in Norfolk, where also the population has decreased, 1 to 1,403; in Warwickshire, 1, to 1,480; in Lancashire, 1 to 1,532; in the West Riding of Yorkshire, 1 to 1,571; in Durham, 1 to 1,575; in Westmoreland, 1 to 1,876; in Northumberland, 1 to 1,922; in Cumberland, 1 to 1,953; in Shropshire, it is only 1 to 2,292; in Rutland, 1 to 4,371. From the foregoing it will be seen that the numbers in proportion to the population vary considerably both in the Towns and in the Counties. Among the Towns the proportion is highest in Liverpool and lowest in Berwick-upon-Tweed; among the Counties it varies from 1 to 1,082 in Cambridgeshire to less than one fourth of that proportion in Rutland.

Total costs	£1,579,222	15	8

Increase of costs.

The increase in the total cost for the year 1861 as compared with the preceding year amounts to 48,111*l.* 10*s.* 1*d.*, or upwards of 3 per cent., an equal increase having appeared in 1860, as compared with 1859.

Under different heads.

The largest increase is under the head of "Salaries and pay," amounting to 57,929*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.*, or upwards of 5 per cent. on the total under this head. In "Allowances and contingent expenses," also, there is an increase of 2,051*l.* 9*s.* 8*d.*, or upwards of 5 per cent. on the total under this head. In "Superannuations and gratuities" there is an increase of 6,033*l.* 3*s.* 2*d.*, or upwards of 9 per cent. on the total under this head. Under all the other heads of expenditure there was a decrease in 1861.

Cost per man.

The average per man for the total number of the Police in 1861, calculating upon the whole costs of the establishments, was 73*l.* 15*s.* 0*d.*; calculating upon the salaries and pay separately, 55*l.* 0*s.* 11*d.*; upon the amount for clothing and accoutrements, 5*l.* 8*s.* 3*d.*; these averages having been respectively 73*l.* 15*s.* 0*d.*, 53*l.* 19*s.* 9*d.*, and 5*l.* 15*s.* 10*d.* per man in 1860, and 72*l.* 2*s.* 0*d.*, 53*l.* 13*s.* 0*d.*, and 5*l.* 1*s.* 0*d.* per man in 1859.

The charge for each class of Police in the Year 1861, and the amounts contributed from the Public Revenue were,—

Police and Constabulary.

Borough Police.

The increase in the charge for the Borough Police amounted to 7,911*l.* 4*s.* 8*d.*, or upwards of 2 per cent. The increase in the amount contributed from the Public Revenue for this Force was 870*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

County Police.

For the County Constabulary the increase of expense was 9,364*l.* 16*s.* 10*d.*, or upwards of 1·5 per cent. The increase in the amount contributed from the Public Revenue was 3,718*l.* 15*s.* 3*d.*

Metropolitan and Dockyard service.

For the Metropolitan Police, including the Dockyard Service, there was an increase of 28,944*l.* 16*s.* 5*d.*, or nearly 6 per cent. The entire cost of the Dockyard Police however is charged on the Public Revenue; and in the cost of the Metropolitan Police, apart from the Dockyard Force, there was a decrease of 12,919*l.* 10*s.* 3*d.*, or upwards of 2·5 per cent. In the amount contributed from the Public Revenue, exclusive of the expense of the Dockyard Service, there was an increase of 8,223*l.* 11*s.* 3*d.* or upwards of 6 per cent.

City of London.

In the expense of the City of London Police there was an increase of 1,890*l.* 12*s.* 2*d.*, or nearly 4 per cent. The charges for this Force are defrayed wholly from the City Funds.

The increase on the total amount contributed from the Public Revenue for 1861 as compared with the preceding year, inclusive of the charge for the Dockyard Force, was 54,676*l.* 19*s.* 10*d.* or upwards of 16 per cent.

Average per man of the different forces.

The average cost per man of the Borough Police was 63*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*; of the County Constabulary, 78*l.* 10*s.* 0*d.*; of the Metropolitan Police, 78*l.* 3*s.* 2*d.*; of the Dockyard Force, 63*l.* 2*s.* 10*d.*; of the City of London Police, 79*l.* 1*s.* 7*d.*

The Criminal Classes, (Table, p. 5.)

The Returns furnished by the Police for the three preceding years with the view of showing the number of the Criminal Classes at large throughout the country have been continued in the same form for the year ended 29th September 1861. It had appeared however, that uniformity of practice had not obtained in all the districts with regard to the persons classed under the heading of "Known thieves and depredators," all persons who were known ever to have been convicted of any offence having been numbered under this designation in some places, while in others a more restricted view had been adopted. In the Returns for the past year, and the same rule is proposed to be followed for the future, those who, although they may at some period have fallen into crime, are not suspected of continuing in dishonest practices or known to frequent evil associates or places of resort, but are established in honest pursuits or callings, have been excluded from the Returns. It is believed that great attention has been devoted to this point by the Officers of Police generally, and with the intelligence, experience, and local knowledge which they possess there seems to be no reason to doubt the full accuracy of the information which has been given.

Persons classed as known thieves, &c.

Decrease in the general total.

Affected no doubt in a great degree by the restriction above referred to, the numbers under the head of "Known thieves and depredators" for the last year show a decrease of 21·3 per cent. as compared with the preceding year. In the numbers of receivers of stolen goods and of suspected persons there is also a decrease, in the former of 14·9 per cent., in the latter of 3·5 per cent. In the numbers of prostitutes and of vagrants and tramps, both juveniles and adults, there is an increase, amounting for the former to 2·9 per cent. and 2·2 per cent. respectively, and for the latter to 10·per cent. and 4·4 per cent. respectively. In the total number of all the classes of those under 16 years of age there is a decrease of 587 or about 3·4 per cent. The general total of all classes and ages shows a decrease of 7,975, or about 6·1 per cent.

The numbers for the four years to which the Returns extend are shown in the following Table,—

Their proportions in the chief districts.

In the Metropolis and the towns which have been grouped together in preceding years for the purpose of showing the proportion borne by the criminal classes to the population in each group, it will be found that while an increase of population is shown according to the last census, amounting for the whole of the places mentioned taken together to 20·0 per cent. above the population according to the census of 1851, there was a decrease in the number of the criminal classes in 1861 as compared with 1860, amounting to 1·3 per cent., with an increase amounting to 2·5 per cent. in the number of prostitutes taken separately, there having been a decrease of 3·8 per cent. in the number of the criminal classes, and of 2·5 per cent. in the number of prostitutes taken separately in 1860 as compared with 1859. The calculations made in former years having been based with regard to population on the census of 1851, it would be useless to continue a comparison of the proportionate numbers for 1861, calculating on the census of that year, with the proportionate number for the preceding year. It will be sufficient to state the actual increase or decrease in 1861 as compared with 1860. The following Table, which shows the number of both classes and their proportion to the population in each of the groups according to the last census, will afford means for the future comparison of the proportionate numbers in successive years, until another census is taken.

6. Seats of the Woollen and Worsted Manufacture.—Leeds, Bradford, Halifax, Rochdale, Huddersfield, and Kidderminster - -	3,398, or 1 in 129·1	778, or 1 in 564·0

8. Seats of the Hardware Manufacture.—Birmingham, Sheffield, and Wolverhampton -	5,496, or 1 in 98·6	1,086, or 1 in 499·0

In the Metropolis the increase in the criminal classes amounted to less than 0·6 per cent.; in the number of prostitutes taken separately the increase was 2·6 per cent. In the pleasure towns there was an increase in the criminal classes amounting to 20·8 per cent., and in the number of prostitutes taken separately of 12·0 per cent. In the towns depending upon agricultural districts a decrease appears in the number of the criminal classes in 1861, amounting to 4·6 per cent. as compared with 1860, with an increase of 1·5 per cent. in the number of prostitutes. In the commercial ports there was a decrease of 3·7 per cent. in the criminal classes, and of 2·3 per cent. in the number of prostitutes taken separately. In the seats of the cotton and linen manufactures the decrease in the number of the criminal classes was less than 0·4 per cent., while there was an increase of upwards of 8·0 per cent. in the number of prostitutes. In the seats of the woollen and worsted manufacture there was an increase of both classes, amounting respectively to 7·9 per cent. and 21·9 per cent. In the seats of the small and mixed textile fabrics there was a decrease of 10·3 per cent. in the criminal classes, and of 13·6 per cent. in the number of prostitutes. In the seats of the hardware manufacture there was a decrease of 10·7 per cent. in the criminal classes with an increase of 10·0 per cent. in the number of prostitutes.

With respect to the proportionate numbers, the Metropolis maintains the first place as regards criminality, the numbers of the criminal classes in proportion to the population being less in the Metropolis than in any of the groups of towns; the seats of the textile fabrics come next; the seats of the cotton and linen manufactures next, these two groups having changed their relative positions since the preceding year; the seats of the woollen manufactures come next; the commercial ports, the towns depending on agricultural districts, and the seats of the hardware manufactures follow; in the pleasure towns, which stood before the three last-mentioned groups in 1860, the proportion of the criminal classes to the population was higher in 1861 than in any of the other groups. With respect to prostitution, the seats of the woollen manufactures maintain the first place as having the smallest number of prostitutes in proportion to the population, as in 1860; the seats of the cotton manufacture and of the hardware manufacture follow as before; the Metropolis which came next has changed places with the seats of the textile fabrics; the pleasure towns which came next in 1860 have changed places with the towns depending upon agricultural districts; and in the commercial ports the number of prostitutes in proportion to the population continues the greatest as before.

The Rural Districts.

In the groups of agricultural counties a decrease appears in the number of the criminal classes as compared with 1860, amounting with respect to the Eastern Counties, to 2,758, or 26·4 per cent.; with respect to the South and South Western Counties, to 161, or 1·5 per cent., and with respect to the Midland Counties, to 1,211, or 13·3 per cent. In the number of prostitutes taken separately, a decrease appears in the Eastern Counties amounting to 215, or 19·2 per cent.; in the South and South Western Counties there is a decrease of two; while in the Midland Counties an increase is shown of 58, or 8·7 per cent. The numbers in each class, in each of the groups of Counties in 1861, and their proportion to the population of each group according to the census of that year, are shown below,—

Proportion of criminal classes to total population.

The proportion of the criminal classes at large as shown in the returns for 1860 was one in 136·8 of the total population, calculated upon the census of 1851 ; the proportion of prostitutes separately, one in 549·6. The proportion of the criminal classes at large, as shown in the returns for 1861, was one in 163·0 of the total population, calculated upon the census of 1861. The proportion of prostitutes taken separately, one in 636.8 of the total population.

Including in the calculation of the criminal classes for 1861 the number of prisoners remaining in custody on the 29th September of that year, viz. :—

In Local Prisons (exclusive of debtors and military prisoners) -	15,601
In the Convict Prisons - - - - -	7,123
In Reformatories - - - - -	3,199

a total of criminal classes is produced amounting to 148,982, or one in 134, of the total population according to the census of 1861 ; the total shown for 1860 having been 155,145, or one in 115 of the population according to the census of 1851.

There is therefore, calculated on the late census, one of the Police Force to every 966 of the population, one of the criminal classes in every 134 ; one of the police for every 6·9 of the criminal classes.

Houses of bad character, (Table, p. 5.)

Their decrease.

The returns made by the police show a decrease for the year of 795, or 3·2 per cent. in the number of houses of bad character, there having been a decrease also in 1860 as compared with 1859 of 5·9 per cent. The decrease for the last year extends to every class of these houses, except coffee shops, in which there was an increase of one. As these places of resort must be fully known to the Police in every district the accuracy of the returns respecting them may no doubt be considered as complete, and the decrease in their number is probably attributable to the closer supervision maintained over them.

The following are the total numbers of these houses as shown in the Table,—

Houses of Receivers of Stolen Goods - - -		2,801
Houses the resort of Thieves and Prostitutes, viz. :
Public Houses - - - - -	2,272

Crimes committed.

The first two Abstracts or Tables relating to the Police, the main points in which have now been brought forward, show in full detail the establishments of the Police and Constabulary for each county and borough, the cost of each establishment, and the proportion contributed from the Public Revenue ; the number of depredators and suspected characters at large in each district ; and the number of houses of bad character which they frequent. The next set of Abstracts or Tables, Nos. 3, 4, and 5, give, with similar detail the number of indictable offences committed in each Police district, the number of persons apprehended in each district, and the disposal of the charges against them, in periods of three months ; the nature of the crimes committed in each district, and a summary of the crimes of each class, of the number of persons apprehended, and the manner in which they were disposed of.

Seasons at which the Crimes were committed, (Table, p. 9.)

Crimes and apprehensions.

In the total number of crimes returned as having been committed, so far as known to the Police, in the four quarters of the year ending with September 1861, there is an increase of 404, or 0·8 per cent, as compared with the preceding year, there having been a decrease of 3·1 per cent in 1860, as compared with 1859. The number of apprehensions in 1861 exceeded the number in 1860 by 2,312 or 9·3 per cent. They were 53·5 per cent. on the number of crimes, being a higher proportion than in either of the preceding years. The returns continue to show the greater prevalence of crime in the winter quarters, while as it may be remarked, the proportionate number of apprehensions is greater in the summer quarters; the proportionate numbers having been for the two winter quarters, respectively 52·2, and 52·0 per cent.; for the two summer quarters, 56·0 and 53·9 per cent. respectively.

The numbers for the four quarters were,—

	Crimes committed.	Persons apprehended.
October, November, and December	13,087	6,837
January, February, and March	13,642	7,096
April, May, and June	11,896	6,664
July, August, and September	12,184	6,577
Total crimes committed	50,809	27,174

Localities of the Crimes, (Table, p. 13.)

It must be remembered that in the tables now under consideration are included only the graver crimes which are proceeded against by indictment, to the exclusion of the numerous offences summarily disposed of by the magistrates, which will be found enumerated in the succeeding tables. Table 4, shows under one column for each Police district the description and number of crimes committed within the year.

Murders.

The murders reported in 1861 amounted to 106, being seven more than for 1860. Of these ten were in the Metropolitan Police district, exclusive of the City of London, where no case occurred. In Lancashire (the boroughs within each county are included), eleven cases were reported; in Staffordshire, nine; in Gloucestershire, seven; in Devon, in Warwickshire, and in the West Riding of Yorkshire, five each: in Somersetshire and Southampton, four each; in Cheshire, Durham, Kent, and Lincoln, three each; in Cambridgeshire, Northumberland, Suffolk, Surrey, and Westmoreland, two each; fifteen English counties, viz., Berks, Bucks, Cornwall, Derby, Dorset, Essex, Hungtindon, Liecester, Northampton, Nottingham, Oxford, Salop, Sussex, Wilts, and Worcester, had one case each; in the whole of Wales, there were nine cases, the counties of Brecon, Cardigan, and Glamorgan having had two cases each, Anglesey, Carmarthen, and Flint each one case; while in England the counties of Bedford, Cumberland, Hereford, Hertford, Monmouth, Norfolk, Rutland, York, East Riding and North Riding, and in Wales, Carnarvon, Denbigh, Merioneth, Montgomery, Pembroke, and Radnor, were free from the crime of murder.

In thirty-eight counties, therefore, exclusive of the Metropolitan Police district, cases of murder more or less numerous, were reported by the Police. Charged with these crimes 128 persons were apprehended, of whom ninety were committed for trial.

Concealing the birth.

The cases of concealing the birth of infants were 151, of which 97 were reported by the County Constabulary, 34 were in boroughs, and 20 in the Metropolitan Police district; the number of cases for the preceding year having been 147, of which 103 were reported from the counties, 24 from boroughs, and 20 from the Metropolitan Police district.

The number of burglaries, which in 1860 was 2,221, amounted in 1861 to 2,791, of which 48·9 per cent. are reported from the counties, 51·1 per cent. from the boroughs.

Comparing the number of indictable offences in the Metropolitan district, including the City of London, and in the boroughs of Birmingham, Leeds, Liverpool, and

Manchester, and the proportion which such numbers bear to the population of those places respectively, the results appear remarkable, viz.:—

	Number of Indictable Offences.	Proportion to Population.
Metropolis	12,232	1 to 263
Birmingham	836	1 to 354
Leeds	626	1 to 330
Liverpool	3,954	1 to 112
Manchester	5,808	1 to 58

Continuing the comparison with regard to particular offences, the following results appear.

From the foregoing the graver offences proceeded against by indictment appear, as reported by the Police, to be most rife in Manchester. The comparative numbers, it will be seen, are different with regard to the offences summarily disposed of by the magistrates.

Disposal of the persons apprehended.

Upon being taken before the magistrates, 32·4 per cent. of the persons apprehended were discharged without further proceedings; 0·6 per cent. were bailed for further appearance if required; 5·1 per cent. were liberated on bail to appear for trial; 61·7 per cent. were committed to prison to wait their trial at assizes or sessions; and 0·2 per cent. were committed to prison for want of sureties. 67·6 of the cases, therefore, were proved to the satisfaction of the magistrates. This latter proportion was for the preceding year 65·3 per cent. The proportion of the number apprehended who were committed for trial was also less in 1860, having been for that year 59·6 per cent.

The exact terms under which the whole of the charges in 1861 were disposed of are as follows:—

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Discharged	6,015	2,779	8,794
Discharged on bail for further appearance if required	130	49	179
Bailed to appear for trial	1,124	259	1,383

Pursuit of Criminals generally.

In Table 5 is given a summary of the crimes of each description committed in each quarter of the year, of the number of persons apprehended charged with each class of offence, and of the manner in which the persons apprehended were disposed of; a test being thus afforded of the success of the Police in the pursuit of the criminals. In the class of offences against the person, the number of persons apprehended will be found to exceed considerably the number of crimes committed. This arises, no doubt, in a great degree from more persons than one being generally concerned in the same offence, and from the greater facility in some of these cases, as in assaults, of identifying the parties.

Police and Constabulary.

For offences against the person.

The total number of crimes reported under this head in 1861 was 2,473, exceeding by 273 the number for 1860. Charged with these crimes 2,647 persons were apprehended, of whom 640 were discharged by the magistrates, leaving 2,007 or 81·1 per cent. as the number of the cases successfully pursued by the Police, supposing one person only to have been sent for trial in each case; this proportion having been 77·4 per cent. in 1860, and 73·9 per cent. in 1859.

Against property with violence.

The total number of offences against property with violence was 5,157, exceeding by 1,092, or upwards of 26·8 per cent. the number for 1860. For these crimes 2,615 persons were apprehended, of whom 637 were discharged on appearance before the magistrates, leaving 1,978 or 38·3 per cent. as the number of the cases successfully pursued, the proportion having been 36·0 per cent. in each of the preceding years.

Malicious offences.

The number of malicious offences against property was 493, being ten less than for 1860; for these offences 360 persons were apprehended, of whom 116 were discharged by the magistrates, leaving 244 or 49·4 per cent. as the number of crimes successfully pursued; the proportion in this class having been 38·1 per cent. in 1860.

Other offences.

The remaining offences recorded by the Police, including the class of offences against property without violence, forgery, and offences against the currency, offences against the game laws, perjury, riot, keeping disorderly houses, attempting to commit suicide (of which there were 209 cases), &c., amounted to 42,686, being 951 less than for the preceding year. These offences were followed by the apprehension of 21,552 persons, of whom, 7,401 being discharged by the magistrates, there remained 14,151 or 33·1 per cent. as the number of cases successfully pursued, the proportion under this head having been 29·4 per cent. for 1860.

The proportion which the total number of cases successfully pursued bore to the total number of crimes recorded, calculated in this manner, was 36·1 per cent. for 1861; this proportion, calculated in the same manner, having been 32·1 per cent. for 1860, and 32·5 per cent. for 1859.

No. of summary Convictions, (Table, p. 21.)

The indictable offences being now disposed of, the next set of tables Nos. 6, 7, and 8, relate to the offences summarily determined by the justices. They show, 1st., the number of persons proceeded against in each police district, whether county or borough, distinguishing the number discharged and the number convicted, and stating the punishments inflicted; 2d., the number of persons proceeded against, specifying the offences in each police district; and 3d., the total number of persons proceeded against for each class of offences, distinguishing the number discharged and the number convicted, and showing the number of the different punishments for each class of offences. Table 9 shows the classes of persons proceeded against in each police district, as well on indictment as summarily.

Comparison.

An increase of 404, or 0·8 per cent. has been shown, as compared with the preceding year, in the number of indictable offences reported by the police in 1861. In the number of summary charges there was an increase of 2,092, or 1·6 per cent., there having been a decrease of 2·0 per cent. in the number proceeded against in 1860 as compared with the number for 1859.

The following figures show the number of persons charged summarily before the magistrates in 1861, with the result of the charges.

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Proceeded against	315,256	79,461	394,717
Convicted	219,875	43,635	263,510
Discharged	95,381	35,826	131,207

The convictions bore a rather higher proportion to the total number of persons charged in 1861 than in the preceding year, the proportions having been, respectively, 66·7 per cent. in 1861, and 66·4 per cent. in 1860.

The convictions among the males were in the proportion of 69·7 per cent. to the number of males proceeded against. Among the females the proportion of the convictions to the number of females proceeded against was 54·9 per cent. The smaller proportion of the convictions among the females has been remarked in former years. The difference of 14·8 per cent., shown above, in the proportions for the two sexes was precisely the same in 1859; in 1860 it was 14·3 per cent.

Punishments adjudged.

The penalties imposed upon those convicted are shown under the following classification.

Imprisoned above 6 months	81
„ 6 months and above 3 months	2,474
„ 3 months and above 2 months	7,167
„ 2 months and above 1 month	9,136
„ 1 month and above 14 days	19,508
„ 14 days and under	22,086
In reformatory schools	1,257
Total committed		61,709
Fined		165,974
Whipped		371
Ordered to find sureties or to enter into recognizance		10,747
Delivered up to the Army or Navy		2,621
Other punishments		22,088
Total convicted		263,510

The proportion of the number committed to prison to the total number convicted was somewhat higher in 1861 than in the preceding year, having been 23·4 per cent. in 1861, against 20·8 per cent. in 1860. The number sentenced to above six months imprisonment was less by eleven in 1861 than in 1860. The proportionate number of those sentenced to imprisonment for above one month was greater in a trifling degree; viz., 7·1 per cent. of the total number convicted in 1861 6·8 per cent. in 1860. There was a decrease of 42, or in the proportion of 10·1 per cent. in the cases of whipping, with an increase of 208, or in the proportion of 19·8 per cent. in the number sent to reformatories. Continuing the same classification of the offences summarily determined by the justices which has been adopted in the preceding years, the following are the total numbers under each heading and class for 1861.

1. Stealing and attempts to steal:

Larceny, by offenders aged under 16 years	6,510
Larceny under the value of 5*s.* and on pleading guilty	16,978
Attempting larceny, or larceny from the person	14,183
Dogs, birds, beasts, &c.	637
Fruit or vegetable productions	4,097
Fences, wood, trees, shrubs, &c.	787
		43,192

Under the first offence, viz., larceny by offenders under 16 years of age, there is an increase of 462 in the number of cases, or 7·6 per cent. as compared with 1860. This offence, it will be remembered, has been subject to summary jurisdiction since 1847. Under each of the two following heads, larceny under the value of 5*s.* 0*d.*, and on pleading guilty, and attempting larceny, or larceny from the person, both of which have been subject to summary jurisdiction since 1855, there is an increase in 1861 under the former of 3,562 cases, or 26·5 per cent. under the latter of 1,193 cases, or 9·1 per cent. Under each of the three remaining heads, all of which have been punishable summarily since 1827, there is an increase, amounting for the three together to 1,120 cases, or 25·4 per cent. In the total number of this class of offences, stealing and attempts to steal, the increase in the number of cases in 1861 amounts to 6,337, or 17·1 per cent. as compared with 1860.

2. Malicious offences of damage and trespass:

Destroying fences, walls, gates, &c.	1,823
Fruit and vegetable productions	1,196
Trees, shrubs, &c.	930

Police and Constabulary.

In the class of malicious offences of damage and trespass, which also have been subject to summary jurisdiction since 1827, there is an increase in 1861 amounting to 247 cases, or 6·6 per cent. as compared with the preceding year.

3. Assaults:—On women and children, aggravated		2,935
On peace officers, resisting, &c.		11,248
Common		62,498
		76,681

Following a decrease in 1860 under the class of assaults, amounting to 8·0 per cent. as compared with 1859, there is a further small decrease of 0·7 per cent. in 1861 as compared with 1860. The decrease in 1861 is observable under each of the three heads, but in the smallest proportion under the first. The aggravated assaults on women and children have been subject to summary jurisdiction since 1853; common assaults since 1828.

4. Offences against the Game Laws:
Trespassing in the day-time in pursuit of game		7,629
Night poaching and destroying game		823
Illegally selling or buying game		31

Under the first head in the class of offences against the Game Laws there is an increase of 65 cases as compared with 1860. Under night poaching and destroying game there is a decrease of 230 cases, or in the proportion of 21·8 per cent. Under the last head also there is a trifling decrease. In the total number of cases in 1861 there is a decrease of 171, or in the proportion of 2·0 per cent. as compared with 1860. Continuing the comparison made last year as to the numbers proceeded against for each of the following offences, it will be found, that under the head of drunkenness, &c., following a decrease of 1·7 per cent. in 1860 as compared with 1859, there is a further decrease of 7·0 per cent. in 1861 as compared with 1860; under the Vagrant Law there is an increase of 10·8 per cent. in 1861 as compared with the preceding year; under Local Acts, &c., there is an increase of 29·1 per cent.; under the Highway, &c., Laws a decrease of 3·2 per cent.; under the Police Acts an increase of 5·2 per cent.; under the Licensed Victuallers' Act, &c., a decrease of 7·5 per cent.; under the Laws relating to servants, &c., a decrease of 12·5 per cent.; under the Weights and Measures Acts, an increase of 4·2 per cent.; under the Mutiny Acts a decrease of 18·4 per cent.; under the Poor Law Acts an increase of 22 per cent.; under Nuisances, &c. a decrease of 14·8 per cent.

The numbers under each of the foregoing heads for 1861 were,

Drunkenness and drunk and disorderly	82,196
Under the Vagrant Laws	26,331
Under Local Acts and Borough Byelaws	33,350
Under the Highway, Turnpike, Railways, and Carriage Laws	19,900
Under the Police Acts	17,651
Under the Licensed Victuallers and Beer Acts	10,827
Under the Laws relating to Servants, Apprentices, and Masters	10,393
Under the Weights and Measures Act	6,474
Under the Mutiny Acts	4,578
Under the Poor Law Acts	6,282
Nuisances and offences against health	3,728

Comparison, 1861–57.

The total numbers proceeded against in each year from 1857, beyond which period the number of summary convictions before justices is not ascertained, were as follows:—

	1861.	1860.	1859.	1858.	1857.
Total proceeded against	394,717	384,918	392,810	404,034	369,233

Discharged	131,207	129,115	135,000	143,744	135,759

Showing an increase in 1861 of 2·5 per cent. in the number proceeded against, and of 3·0 per cent. in the number convicted, as compared with the numbers in 1860; of 0·4 per cent. only in the number proceeded against, and of 2·2 per cent. in the number convicted, as compared with 1859; while, as compared with 1858, there is a decrease of 2·3 per cent. in the number proceeded against, with an increase of 1·2 per cent. in the number convicted. The proportion per cent. which the convictions bear to the total number proceeded against in each year, shows a continued increase. In 1857 it was 63·2; in 1858, 64·4; in 1859, 65·6; in 1860, 66·4; in 1861, 66·7.

The following summary of Table 9, gives the class and character of the whole of the persons apprehended by the Police in 1861, as well those proceeded against summarily as those on indictment.

In the number of known thieves proceeded against in 1861, there is an increase of 1,403, or 7·0 per cent., as compared with the preceding year; in the number of prostitutes proceeded against there is a decrease of 656, or 3·5 per cent.; in the number of vagrants proceeded against, there is an increase of 1,122, or 6·8 per cent.; in the number of suspicious characters, an increase of 836, or 1·8 per cent.; in the number of drunkards, there is a decrease of 246, or 1·0 per cent.; in the number of those of previous good character, there is an increase of 3,479, or 2·5 per cent.; in the number of those whose character was unknown, there is an increase of 6,173, or 4·2 per cent.; in the total number proceeded against, on indictment and summarily, taken together, the increase in 1861 is 12,111, or 2·9 per cent.

Police repression of crime.

Comparing the numbers proceeded against with the numbers reported to be at large, it appears, that the Police pursued in 1861, 21,267 known thieves and depredators against 29,806 of this class stated to have been at large, or 71·3 per cent.; 20,004 prostitutes, against 31,500 at large, or 63·5 per cent.; 17,496 vagrants and tramps, &c., against 24,001 at large, or 72·8 per cent.; the proportionate numbers having been respectively 52·4 per cent., 67·0 per cent., and 72·2 per cent. in 1860; and 55·7 per cent., 73·8 per cent., and 70·2 per cent. in 1859, showing, as compared with each of the preceding years, a large increase in the proportionate numbers proceeded against in 1861, with regard to the known thieves and depredators; a smaller increase with regard to vagrants; and a decrease as regards the other class. The following reference to the number of known thieves at large, of crimes committed, and of persons apprehended, in the Metropolitan District, and in the several groups of towns and counties with regard to which comparisons have been before made, affords a further test of the activity of the Police in the repression of the criminal classes.

Proportion to population.

The following are the numbers of the cases of summary convictions, with their proportion to the population in the Metropolitan district, including the City of London, and each of the towns between which a comparison has been made, with respect to the number of indictable offences.

Appeals on Justices' Convictions, (Table, p. 37.)

In Table 10 are classified the offences, at least those which most commonly occur, upon conviction for any of which by Justices, an appeal may be entered for the decision of the Court of Quarter Sessions. Fifty-seven heads of offences are enumerated in the table, under 17 only of which appeals were made in 1861. Forty-nine appeals in all were heard, in thirty-one of which the convictions were affirmed; in eighteen they were quashed. It follows therefore, that the number of summary convictions having been 263·510 as already shown, the original decision was reversed in one case only in every 14,639 decided out of Sessions.

In addition to these, it will be seen upon reference to the returns given in the second part of the Statistics (p.p. 131, 134, 136,) that sixty cases were stated under the Statute 20 & 21 Vict. c. 43, for the decision of the Superior Courts at Westminster. Of these, forty-five were submitted to the Court of Queen's Bench, of which thirty-eight were argued, but the results are not given. Nine cases were submitted to the Court of Common Pleas, six of which were affirmed, and three reversed. Six cases were submitted to the Court of Exchequer, of which two were affirmed, and four reversed.

The coroners' returns complete the first division of the statistics, under the head of Police. These returns have been made in the same form for 1861 as for the preceding years; they comprise returns from 331 coroners, the whole number acting in England. By several of this number, no inquests were held during the year, as will be seen in the table. The coroner for the Liberty of St. Peter at York, having died some time since, it has been ascertained that no successor has been appointed, and that inquests in that jurisdiction are held by one of the county coroners, or by the city coroner of York, according as the cases happen in the part of the Liberty situated in the county, or within the city.

At Plympton Earl also, the borough coroner is no longer continued, the jurisdiction being merged in the County.

The number of inquests held in the year was as follows,—

Verdict.	Males.	Females.	Total.
Murder - - - -	95	115	210
Manslaughter - - -	126	74	200
Justifiable homicide - -	7	1	8

Total - -	14,711	6,327	21,038

In the total number held within the year there is a decrease of 0·7 per cent, as compared with the number in 1860. As compared with the average for the five years 1860–56, there is an increase in the number for 1861 amounting to 1·2 per cent. In the inquests upon males taken separately, there was an increase amounting to 2·5 per cent. in 1861 as compared with the preceding year. The decrease was with respect to the females, and amounted to 7·4 per cent. of the inquests held upon females.

Comparison.

In the verdicts of murder there is a decrease of 21·6 per cent. in the number for 1861 as compared with 1860, the proportionate decrease having been greatest with respect to the males. As compared with the average of five years there was an increase of 2 cases in 1861.

Murder.

In the verdicts of manslaughter there is a large increase in 1861, amounting to 38·8 per cent. on the number for 1860, the greatest proportionate increase (more than double) being with respect to the females. Taking the verdicts of murder and manslaughter together, for each of the years 1861 and 1860, the numbers differ only by two, the lowest number having been in 1861.

Manslaughter.

In the total of the verdicts of suicide there is a decrease of 2·4 per cent. in 1861 as compared with 1860. As compared with the average of 5 years, there is an increase of 1·3 per cent. The decrease as compared with 1860 is entirely with respect to the females, and amounts to 8·3 per cent. With respect to the males the numbers were the same in each year.

Suicide.

In the verdicts of death from excessive drinking (under the head of natural death) there is a decrease in 1861 as compared with 1860 amounting to 29·6 per cent.; the decrease being, with regard to the males, in the proportion of 22·5 per cent., with regard to the females of 36·6 per cent.

Excessive Drinking.

The following are the total numbers, under each verdict, in each of the last 6 years,—

	1861.	1860.	1859.	1858.	1857.	1856.

Age and Sex.

The following table gives the classified sexes and ages of the persons upon whom inquests were held, showing that 69·9 per cent. of the whole were males, 30·1 per cent. females; that 27·8 per cent. of the whole were infants; 8·0 per cent. between the ages of seven years and sixteen; 48·3 per cent. adults; and 15·9 per cent. 60 years and above.

The following are the costs of the inquests for 1861 (so far as ascertained for that year), and for each of the five preceding years. For 1861 several of the coroners have given only the amount of their expenses, stating that their salaries have not yet been settled under the Act of 1860. The average cost of each inquest is therefore not fully shown for the past year.

Criminal Proceedings, 1861.

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS.

Increase in the number of commitments.

Considering the large increase which is annually taking place in the population of the country, it was scarcely to be hoped that the decrease in the number of the commitments, which has been observed in each of the three last years, could be continuous in succeeding years. The increase shown by the Police Returns for 1861, in the number of indictable offences reported, and in the number of persons apprehended, pointed also, as a natural consequence, to an increase in the numbers for trial. Accordingly, it will be seen that, whatever immediate causes may have been in operation, the commitments in the last year have risen to a higher number than in any of the 3 preceding years, the number in 1861 being in excess of the number in 1860 by 2,327, or in the proportion of 12·7 per cent, and of the average of the 3 years 1860–59, and 58 by 1,484, or in the proportion of 8·0 per cent.

The commitments in each of the 15 last years were,—

1861	-	18,326	1856	-	19,437	1851	-	27,960
1860	-	15,999	1855	-	25,972	1850	-	26,813

Commitments in different Counties, (Table, p. 46.)

The increase in 1861 as compared with 1860, extends in a greater or less degree to every county, excepting Dorset, Essex, Northampton, Northumberland, Nottingham, Wilts, Anglesey, Brecon, and Carnarvon, in each of which there was a decrease.

In Northumberland, the decrease amounted to almost a fourth (24·7 per cent.) following a decrease in each of the four preceding years; in Northamptonshire the decrease was 10·8 per cent.; in the other counties above named it was inconsiderable.

The counties in which the greatest comparative increase appears are, Somerset 58·5 per cent.; Warwick 58·1 per cent.; Derby 50·8 per cent.; Hereford 46·9 per cent.; Gloucester 39·5 per cent.; Suffolk 37·2 per cent.; Worcester 33·7 per cent.; Surrey 27·7 per cent.; Bedford 25·3 per cent.; Monmouth 24·4 per cent.; Lincoln 23·6 per cent.; Shropshire 21·8 per cent.; Hertford 21·1 per cent.; Leicester 20·6 per cent.; Berks and Durham each 19 6 per cent.; Stafford 17·7 per cent.; Huntingdon and Kent each 16·6 per cent.; Cornwall 16·2 per cent.; York 15·8 per cent.; Westmorland 15 per cent.; Norfolk 13·6 per cent.; Cambridge 13·2 per cent.; Cumberland 10·9 per cent.; Lancashire 9·5 per cent.; Sussex 9·2 per cent. In the 16 remaining counties the increase was less considerable.

Examining the nature of the offences, the increase will be found to extend to all the six classes under which the offences are ranged in the tables. In the class of offences against the person, it amounts to 14·2 per cent. as compared with 1860; to 1·9 per cent. as compared with 1859. As compared with each of the two preceding years however, the number is less, in the proportion of 4·0 per cent. with regard to 1858, and of 4·6 per cent. with regard to 1857. The commitments for murder taken separately show an increase of 30·6 per cent. as compared with 1860; a decrease however of 30·0 per cent. appeared in the number for the latter year, as compared with 1859; the number is less for 1861 than for any year excepting 1860, since 1855. For attempts to murder there was an increase of 26·0 per cent. in 1861, there having been a decrease in the commitments for this crime, also, in 1860, amounting to 30·3 per cent. as compared with 1859. For concealing the births of infants there was an increase of two cases. This crime shows a tendency to increase yearly; the commitments in 1861 are in excess of the average of the last ten preceding years in the proportion of 16·2 per cent. For shooting at, &c. with intent to maim, the increase in 1861 was 2·8 per cent. as compared with 1860; as compared with the average of the five preceding years, however, there was a decrease in 1861 of 18·7 per cent. For manslaughter there was a decrease of four cases in 1861, following a decrease of 12·6 per cent in 1860 as compared with 1859; taking the average of the ten preceding years there was a decrease in the commitments for this crime in 1861 of 11·3 per cent. Manslaughter.

For the unnatural offences there was an increase of 21·9 per cent., a decrease of almost the same amount appeared in 1860 as compared with 1859; a comparison of the number of commitments for these offences for the two last periods of five years shows a decrease of 6·8 per cent. in the latest period. Unnatural offences.

For rape, carnally abusing young girls, and assaults with intent, &c. there was an increase of 23·3 per cent. in 1861; a decrease of 7·3 per cent. had been shown in the commitments for these crimes in 1860 as compared with 1859. Rape, &c.

In the commitments for bigamy there was a decrease of 18·4 per cent., following a decrease of 14·2 per cent. in 1860 as compared with 1859. Bigamy.

In the commitments for assaults in 1861 an increase appears in each of the classes,—in assaults and inflicting bodily harm, of 23·3 per cent.; in common assaults, of 28·1 per cent.; and in assaults on peace officers in the execution of their duty, of 24·1 per cent. Assaults.

In the class of offences against property with violence, the increase was 38·3 per cent.; in burglary taken separately, 40·9 per cent.; for housebreaking, 56·4 per cent.; for breaking into the curtilage of dwelling houses, shops, &c. and stealing, 23·7 per cent.; for robbery and attempts to rob by persons armed in company, &c., 31·0 per cent. The total of this class of offences had shown a decrease for each of the three preceding years. Offences against property with violence.

The class of offences against property without violence shows an increase of 11·3 per cent.; the cases of cattle-stealing and of sheep-stealing were more frequent than in the preceding year; of horse-stealing fewer cases occurred than in any year recorded. In the various larcenies taken together there was an increase of 9·5 per cent.; an increase appears also under all the remaining heads of this class, stealing, receiving stolen goods, embezzlement, frauds, &c. Offences against property without violence.

The class of malicious offences against property shows an increase of 18·5 per cent., following an increase of 2·6 per cent. in the preceding year. Malicious offences against property.

In cases of forgery and offences against the currency, the increase in 1861 amounted to 16·4 per cent. as compared with the preceding year. The commitments for these offences were, however, fewer in 1861 than in any of the ten preceding years, except 1860. Forgery, &c.

In the miscellaneous class, the increase was 19·9 per cent. In this class are included offences against the game laws, the increase in which was 27·5 per cent. as compared with 1860, and nearly 10·0 per cent. as compared with the average of the last ten years preceding 1861. Miscellaneous offences.

The courts before which trials by jury for criminal offences take place are the County and Borough Courts of Quarter Sessions, the Circuit Assize Courts, and the Central Criminal Court. The constitution of these courts and the extent of their respective jurisdictions have been described in the Statistics of 1859. Courts for the Trial of Criminal Cases.

The numbers for trial before these courts, and the proportion per cent. which the number before each court bore to the total number for trial in 1861, and the corresponding numbers and proportions for 1860, were as follows:—

	1861.		1860.
1. County Quarter Sessions Courts -	7,965	43·5	6,632	41·4
Middlesex County Sessions -	1,658	9·0	1,626	10·2
2. Borough Sessions Courts - -	3,917	21·4	3,547	22·2
3. Circuit Assize Courts - -	3,623	19·8	3,108	19·4
Central Criminal Court - -	1,163	6·3	1,086	6·8
Total - - -	18,326	100·0	15,999	100·0

The proportion per cent. which the numbers tried in each of the courts bear to the total tried, varies little from year to year.

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS.

The proceedings against those committed or bailed to appear for trial, had the following results in each of the years 1861 and 1860:—

	1861.		1860.

Proportion acquitted.

The number acquitted and discharged was less than one fourth (24·1 per cent.) of the total number for trial. In 1860 the proportion was 24·4 per cent. In 1859 it was 25·0 per cent., thus showing a decreased proportion in each successive year. The same observation may be made with respect to the number not prosecuted, the proportions being 0·3 per cent. in 1861; less than 0·5 per cent. in 1860; and above 0·5 per cent. in 1859; and also, with respect to the number found not guilty on trial, the proportions under this head being 18·7 per cent. in 1861; 19·1 per cent. in 1860; and 19·6 per cent. in 1859. The proportion of those against whom no bills were found is higher in 1861, being 5·0 per cent. for that year, against 4·8 per cent. in 1860, and 4·9 per cent. in 1859.

The proportion of the total number acquitted and discharged to the total number for trial in 1861, in comparison with the preceding years, was

Capital Sentences.

Although the number of capital sentences in 1861 exceeded by two as shown above, the number in 1860, their proportion per cent. to the total convictions is less for the former year than for the latter, viz., 0·36 (or reckoning three additional convictions as adverted to farther on, 0·38) in 1861; 0·39 in 1860.

Transportation.

The Statute of the 20 & 21 Vict. by which the sentence of penal servitude is substituted for transportation, reserves the power of transporting any convict sentenced to the former punishment. This power was exercised during the past year in the cases of 610 convicts who were removed to Western Australia.

Penal servitude.

The sentences to penal servitude which numbered 2,450 in 1861, and 2,219 in 1860, were in the proportion of 17·6 per cent. to the total number of convictions in the former year; of 18·4 per cent in 1860.

Imprisonment.

The sentences to imprisonment, 10,971 in 1861, 9,396 in 1860, not including the offenders sent to reformatory schools, were 79·0 per cent. of the total convictions in 1861; 77·3 per cent. in 1860.

Reformatories, &c.

The numbers sentenced to detention in reformatories, and to whipping, and to fine, and those discharged on sureties, taken together, were five more in 1861 than in 1860. The proportion per cent. of these sentences to the total convictions was 2·9 in 1861; 3·3 in 1860. With regard both to penal servitude and to imprisonment, it will be seen that only a small proportion of the sentences is for the longer periods. Sixty per cent. of the sentences to penal servitude in 1861 were for four years and under; 61·6 per cent. of the sentences to imprisonment in that year were for six months or under.

Capital Convictions.

Alteration of the law.

The next following table has hitherto represented the crimes, which since the year 1845 have been liable to capital punishment. Since the statutes passed in 1861 for the consolidation of the criminal law have been in operation, by which so many former Acts and parts of Acts have been repealed, treason and murder remain the only crimes for which sentence of death can now be legally pronounced. As these statutes came into operation only on the 1st November 1861, and special provision is made, that offences committed previously to that date should be dealt with as if the former Acts had not been repealed, few of the cases included in the present statistics can have been tried subject to the new law. Three cases, however, tried at the late winter Assizes, the crimes having of course been committed subsequently to the 31st October, will be found in the table p. 45; one for an attempt to murder and two for unnatural offences, for which sentences of penal servitude were passed; but which under the former state of the law would have been subject to sentence of death. These cases, had the change in the law not taken place, would have raised the number of capital sentences for the year 1861 to fifty-three. Of the fifty capital convictions, twenty-six only were for murder. The remaining twenty-four were consequently (none of them being for treason) for crimes which, had they been committed subsequently to the 31st October, could not have received capital sentence.

The crimes for which the capital sentences were passed, with the number of convictions for each crime, are shown below, for 1861 in comparison with each of the nine preceding years.

Criminal Proceedings.

Executions, 1861.

In fifteen of the capital convictions, two being for the same murder, the sentence of death was carried into execution. Fourteen of these convictions were for murder, and one for a very brutal attempt to murder, in which however, the intended victim escaped death, and was the means of convicting her assailant. This, the last execution which will take place where murder has not been accomplished, is the only case that has occurred for one and twenty years, in which the extreme penalty of the law has been inflicted for any crime but murder.

The following are the particulars of the different cases.

Cambridgeshire.—Augustus Hilton, aged 28. Murder of his wife by cutting her throat after a quarrel.

Cheshire.—Martin Doyle, aged 26. Attempt to murder a woman with whom he cohabited; having broken her head in a brutal manner with a stone.

Derbyshire.—George Smith, aged 20. Murder of his father by shooting him with a pistol, from a vindictive feeling for his having reproved him for his evil course of life.

Devonshire.—Robert Hackett, aged 29, a soldier. For the murder of his serjeant after a quarrel, when intoxicated.

Kent.—Peter Masterson, aged 22, a soldier in the Artillery. Murder of a serjeant by striking him on the head with a poker, in revenge for his having been punished through the serjeant's instrumentality.

Lancashire.—Patrick McCaffrey, aged 20, a soldier. For shooting the Colonel and the Adjutant of his regiment, out of revenge against the latter for having punished him.

Middlesex.—William Cogan, aged 30, a labourer. For murder of his wife in a quarrel, when both were drunk.

Somersetshire.—Matthew Wedmore, aged 31, and Charles Wedmore, aged 22, brothers; the former a labourer, the latter a mariner. Murder of their great uncle, after plundering his house.

Southamptonshire.—Thomas Jackson, aged 19, a soldier. Murder of his Serjeant by shooting him, in consequence of a grudge he had conceived against him.

Staffordshire.—David Brandrick, aged 20. Convicted with two others, whose sentences were commuted to penal servitude, for the murder of a man whose house they had broken into and robbed.

Warwickshire.—John Thompson, aged 35. Murder of a woman with whom he was in company in a brothel, supposed in consequence of a quarrel between them.

Warwickshire.—William Beamish, aged 45, a weaver. For poisoning his wife and child with arsenic, without apparent motive; he had intrigued with his servant.

Yorkshire.—James Waller, aged 31, a poacher. For murder of a gamekeeper by shooting him, apparently not in a struggle with him.

Brecknockshire.—William Williams, age 19. For murder of his aunt by shooting her, in expectation of succeeding to her property.

Commuted Punishments.

In the thirty-five remaining cases, the following commuted punishments were substituted by conditional pardons from the Crown for the capital sentences.

Criminal Appeals, (Table, p. 55.)

The Court of Criminal Appeal constituted under the Act of the 11 & 12 Vict. c. 78., is composed of five judges of the Superior Courts, one of whom is required to be one of the chief justices. For the decision of this court are reserved questions of law arising on convictions in the Criminal Courts of Assize and Quarter Sessions, and the Central Criminal Court.

Twenty-two cases were brought under the consideration of the court in the year 1861, in only three of which the original judgment was reversed.

The following summary shows the offences charged; the court before which the persons charged stood committed for trial; and the judgment of the Court of Appeal in each case decided. Fuller particulars will be found in the return given at p. 55. as furnished by the clerk of the court.

Costs of Prosecution, 1860. (Table, p. 55.)

The costs of the prosecutions at the Assizes and Central Criminal Court, and the County and Borough Sessions, and of the summary proceedings under the Criminal Justice Act and the Juvenile Offenders Act, which are defrayed from the public revenues, are given in the table in full detail for each jurisdiction. These accounts have hitherto been given for a year, ending 30th June. In last year's statistics, however, an additional half year's accounts were furnished, ending with the 31st December 1859, in continuation of which the accounts given in the present statistics are for the full year ending 31st December 1860. Although, however, the accounts now given are for a year complete, they properly belong to the statistics of 1860, and it has not been found possible to have made out in time the accounts for 1861, to correspond with the other portions of the present volume.

The amounts for 1860 were as follows:—

Prisons.

PRISONS.

The third division of the first or criminal portion of the statistics comprises returns for each of the local prisons, the convict prisons, the reformatories and industrial schools, and returns relating to criminal lunatics.

The local prisons comprise ninety-two county and liberty prisons, inclusive of the gaol of Newgate, fifty-six city and borough prisons, the Queen's prison in Southwark, and the prison at Halifax, used for the imprisonment of county court debtors, making together a total of one hundred and fifty.

The returns from these prisons are for the year ended the 29th September 1861, and show the following as the total number of commitments of every description during the year.

Commitments, 1861, (Table, p. 63.)

Commitments.	Males.	Females.	Total.	Proportion per Cent.
For trial and tried at assizes and sessions - - -	14,050	4,388	18,438	14·3

Their increase in 1861.

From the increase of crime which has been already shown, as reported by the Police, and under the head of Criminal Proceedings, it was to be inferred, that the prison returns also must show an increase in the number of commitments. For the last two years, successively, a decrease had appeared in the commitments, amounting for 1859, to 9·0 per cent. as compared with 1858, and for 1860, to 8·3 per cent. as compared with 1859. For 1861, however, there is an increase in the total number of commitments of 12,956 or 11 per cent. as compared with 1860, and of 2,377 or 1·8 per cent. as compared with the number in 1859. As compared with 1860, there is an increase under every head, except "for want of sureties" and "Military and Naval Offences," under each of which there is a decrease for 1861; under the former of 426 or 14·7 per cent., and under the latter of 458 or 13 per cent. Under the head of commitments for trial, &c., the increase amounts to 2,248 or 13·8 per cent.; under summary convictions to 8,720 or 12·4 per cent.; on remand and discharge to 988 or 9·0 per cent.; for debt and on civil process it amounts to 1,884 or 16·0 per cent. The increase extends to both sexes, being for the males 13·1 per cent., and for the females 5·5 per cent.

Comparison, 1861–1852.

In the following summary the comparative state of the commitments is shown under each of the above heads for each of the last five years, and for each of the two last periods of five years, proving an increase of 3·3 per cent. in the total number of commitments for the five years ending with 1861, above the total number for the five years ending with 1856.

The increase for the period ending with 1861 appears under every head, except the first, that is the commitments for trial and for punishment after trial, under which there is a decrease of 43·7 per cent. Under the head of summary convictions the increase amounts to 9·3 per cent. Taking these two columns together, it will be found that the large decrease in the first, that is in commitments for trial and for punishment after trial, or in other words, commitments in connection with indictable offences, is nearly counterbalanced by the increase in the second column, that is in the commitments under summary convictions; the decrease in the two columns taken together for the last period of five years as compared with the preceding period, being 1·2 per cent. only; this is no doubt to be accounted for in a great degree by the increased summary jurisdiction given to Justices by the Criminal Justice Act of 1855, which was in operation during the whole of the period ending with 1861, while its effects had only begun to be felt during the two last years of the former period.

Under the head of Debtors and Civil Process, the increase in the five years ending with 1861, amounted to 42·6 per cent.; under military and naval offences, it amounted to 22·6 per cent. Omitting the debtors and military, &c. prisoners it will be found that there is a decrease of 0·6 per cent. in the remaining commitments for the five years ending with 1861, as compared with the preceding period of five years. It therefore results, not only that the largest proportionate increase is under these heads, but that the increase in the total commitments for the last five years as compared with the preceding five, is attributable to the increase in the number of commitments for debt, and under civil process, and of the military and naval commitments taken together.

The number of recommitted prisoners in 1861 exceeded the number in 1860 by 3,401, or by 9·6 per cent. The number of committals however, having been greater in 1861, as has been already shown, the proportion borne by the recommittals to the total number committed, differed only by 0·4 per cent. in favour of 1861. The number of male prisoners recommitted, was in the proportion of 25·5 per cent. to the total number of males committed; the number of females recommitted was in the proportion of 40·1 per cent. to the total number of females committed. These proportions were somewhat higher in 1860, with respect both to males and females.

Recommittals, (Table, p. 63.)

The proportion per cent. of those who had been more than ten times previously committed to the total committals, was the same in the years 1860 and 1861. The excess which was remarked last year with regard to the number of females in this class is still observable. The number of females who had been committed to prison more than ten times, bore the proportion of 19·3 per cent. to the total recommittals of females. The number of males who had been more than then ten times committed, was in the proportion of 3·9 per cent. to the total recommittals of males. These proportions in the preceding year were, of the females 19·8 per cent., and of the males 3·7 per cent.

First commitments.

Repeating for 1861, the calculation made for the preceding year, by deducting the debtors and military prisoners committed within the year, the remaining commitments are 112,144, from which, taking the recommittals and those committed on remand and discharged, the remainder 61,410, or 47·5 per cent. of the total commitments, may be taken as the number committed for the first time on criminal charges. The corresponding number for 1860 was 54,269, or 46·7 per cent. of the total commitments for that year. Deducting further the juvenile classes, there remain 52,609, or 40·7 per cent. of the total commitments, as the number of adults committed within the year for the first time as criminals. This latter number was, for 1860, 46,240, or 39·8 per cent. of the total commitments for that year.

Ages of those committed, (Table p. 66.)

The following are the classified ages of the total commitments, exclusive of debtors and military prisoners.

Ages.	Males.	Females.	Total.	Proportion per Cent.
Under 12 years	1,408	258	1,666	1·5
12 years and under 16	5,965	1,170	7,135	6·4

Age not ascertained	462	212	674	0·6
Total	80,320	31,824	112,144	100·0

Comparison.

As compared with 1860, there is an increase in every class of age. The proportion per cent. however of the numbers in the different classes to the total number of commitments, varies in a very trifling degree, showing that the increase in the commitments is nearly equally distributed among the several classes. In the number of those under 12 years of age, the increase is 11·1 per cent.; in those from 12 to 16, it is 8·2 per cent. Taking the whole juvenile classes under 16 years of age, there is an increase of 8·7 per cent., there having been a decrease of 10 per cent. in the committals of this age in 1860 as compared with 1859.

The juvenile classes.

In the five last years the numbers were,—

	1861.	1860.	1859.	1858.	1857.
Under 12 years of age:
Males - -	1,408	1,307	1,176	1,352	1,622
Females - -	258	173	202	201	255
Aged 12 and under 16 years:
Males - -	5,965	5,458	6,406	7,485	9,200
Females - -	1,170	1,091	1,129	1,291	1,424
Total - -	8,801	8,029	8,913	10,329	12,501

Their proportion to the total committed.

Notwithstanding the increase in the number of this class committed in 1861, the small decrease which has appeared in each of the last four years in the proportion of the juvenile classes under 16 years of age to the total number committed, continues in 1861. This proportion is, for 1861, 7·8 per cent.; for 1860, under 8·0 per cent.; for 1859, 8·3 per cent.; for 1858, 8·7 per cent.; for 1857, 10·0 per cent.

Birth-place of those committed.

The proportion per cent. which the number of committals of those born in each country respectively bears to the total number of commitments, scarcely varies in the two years 1860 and 1861. Of those born in England it was the same in each year. It was higher in 1861 of those from Wales, by 0·1. Of those from Ireland, by 0·2. Of those from the Colonies and East Indies by 0·1. Of those not ascertained by 0·1. It was lower of those from Scotland by 0·3; of those from foreign countries by 0·2.

State of Instruction, (Table, p. 69.)

In the state of instruction of those committed little variation appears. The proportion of those who could neither read nor write is higher by 0·3 per cent. in 1861, than in 1860; of those who could read, or read and write imperfectly, it is lower by 0·3 per cent.; of those who could read and write well it is lower by 0·1 per cent. A continued, though trifling decrease in the proportionate number of this class being thus shown for four successive years.

0·3 per cent. continues to represent the proportionate number of those of superior instruction.

Comparative instruction of the sexes.

The proportion of the males who could neither read nor write is 32·8 per cent.; ot the females 38·4 per cent. The proportion of the males who could read, or read and write imperfectly, is 63·3 per cent.; of the females 58·8 per cent. The proportion of the males who could read and write well is 4·8 per cent.; of the females 1·8 per cent. Of the males of superior instruction the proportion is 0·3 per cent.; of the females 0·1 per cent; all tending to show a greater degree of instruction among the males.

Degree of Instruction.	Males.	Females.	Total.	Proportion per Cent.
Neither read nor write - -	26,379	12,224	38,603	34·4
Read, or read and write imperfectly	49,255	18,717	67,972	60·6

Total - -	80,320	31,824	112,144	100·0

Occupations, (Table, p. 69.)

The table which shows the occupations of those committed during the year, offers as little ground for observation as any of the foregoing. The increase in the number of commitments appears to be pretty equally distributed among the different classes, the proportion per cent. of each to the total commitments, varying in no important degree in the two years 1861 and 1860. The small decrease which has been noticed in the two preceding years in the proportion of those returned as of no occupation, continues in 1861, amounting to 0·7 per cent. In the proportionate number of labourers, &c., there is an increase of 1·4 per cent. In the proportionate number of sailors, &c., there is a decrease of 1·0 per cent.; under no other head is there a variation of more than 0·2 per cent.

Disposal of the Prisoners, (Table, p. 72.)

Proceeding next to show the whole number of prisoners detained in the local prisons during the year, it may be remarked that the table has been framed to distinguish the debtors from the criminals, as well with regard to the number in custody at the commencement of the year, as to the number remaining in custody at its close; and also to show the number of prisoners under detention during the year, who were admitted to bail and remained out at the close of the year.

The committals and removals together having exceeded the numbers disposed of during the year by 1,785, the number remaining in custody at the close of the year exceeded by that number, or 1·3 per cent. the number at the commencement of the year.

The numbers under detention in the county and borough prisons and the removals during the year, were

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Number in Prison at the commencement of the year:
Criminals	10,931	3,574
Debtors, &c.	1,009	51

Removed between Local Prisons during the year	2,735	383	3,118
Total	111,443	36,478	147,921

The foregoing, being the number under detention during the year, exceed the corresponding numbers for 1860 by 11,191, or 11·1 per cent., as regards the males, and by 1,207, or 3·4 per cent., as regards the females, showing a total increase of 12,398, or 9·1 per cent. The following, being the numbers disposed of during the year, exceed the corresponding numbers for 1860 by 9,486, or 18·7 per cent., as regards the males, and by 1,127, or 3·5 per cent., as regards the females; the total increase being 10,613, or 8·8 per cent.

Capacity of the Prisons, (Table, p. 75.)

Owing to an error only now discovered in the statement given for 1859 as to the numbers for which the prisons were constructed, an increase was made to appear for 1860 equal to the accommodation of 2,166 prisoners, when in reality the increase was only for 1,063. The Returns for 1861 show, as compared with the preceding year, a decrease of 566 in the number which the prisons are capable of containing. The increase in the former year will be found chiefly at the Westminster and Wandsworth Houses of Correction, the New County Gaol at Warwick, at Canterbury, Cardiff, and Swansea, with less important variations in other prisons. The decrease in 1861 is attributable in the chief degree to the discontinuance of the Prisons at Walsingham and Beccles, of the Old County Gaol and House of Correction at Warwick, and of the City Gaol at Coventry.

The Returns for 1861 show also, consequent on the increase of commitments, an increase both in the greatest number confined at one time and in the daily average, the former amounting to 1,030, or 5·2 per cent., the latter to 893, or 5·7 per cent., as compared with 1860.

The following are the numbers for 1861:

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Prisons constructed to contain	21,356	6,102	27,458
Greatest number of prisoners confined at one time	16,126	4,460	20,586
	Total—Males and Females.
Daily average of prisoners in the year	16,513

PRISONS.

Notwithstanding the decrease of accommodation and the increase in the number of inmates in 1861, the capacity of the prisons in the aggregate is shown to have been much beyond, not only the daily average of the prisoners throughout the year, but also the greatest number confined at one time. In the following prisons, however, it will be seen on reference to the Table, that the number for which they are constructed was exceeded by the greatest number confined at one time, viz., Chester Borough Gaol, Dorchester County Gaol and House of Correction, Stafford County Gaol and House of Correction, Scarborough Borough Gaol, Haverfordwest County Gaol and House of Correction, Plymouth Borough Gaol, Hexham County Gaol and House of Correction; and in the following, not only the greatest number confined at one time but also the daily average was in excess of the number for which the prisons are constructed, viz., Devonport, Portsmouth, and Sandwich Borough Prisons.

Sanitary state of the prisons, (Table, p. 75.)

Cases of Sickness and Death.	1861.			Average of 5 Years.
	Males.	Females.	Total.	1860–56.	1855-51.
Deaths	140	36	176	182	216
Cases of sickness:
Infirmary cases	2,700	1,078	3,778	4,337	5,207
Slight indisposition	34,182	12,293	46,475	43,850	37,044
Insanity	89	35	124	143	108
Greatest number of sick at one time	Male and Female. 1,886			1,994	2,089

The number of deaths in 1861 exceeded the number in 1860 by 13, the excess having been six among the males and seven among the females. At the same time the number of prisoners under detention in 1861 having exceeded the number in 1860, as has been shown, the total deaths, which for 1860 were 1 in 808·9 of the prisoners, were for 1861, 1 in 822·7 only, proving a decrease of 6·8 per cent. in proportion to the number of prisoners for 1861. The infirmary cases were 1 in 38·3 of the prisoners in 1861; 1 in 33·9 in 1860. The cases of slight indisposition were 1 in 3·1 of the prisoners in 1861; 1 in 3·3 in 1860. The cases of insanity, which had shown an increase in 1860, have fallen in 1861 considerably below the number in the former year as well as below the average of the five preceding years. The result of the comparison as to the sanitary state of the prisons is, therefore, upon the whole, favourable to the year 1861.

Prison Punishments, (Table, p. 75.)

The number of punishments inflicted in 1861 for offences committed in prison, was in the same proportion to the number of prisoners as in the preceding year, viz. 1 in every 3·8. The cases of whipping and irons have, however, greatly decreased; in 1860 whipping was inflicted upon 1 in every 1,497·6 of the male prisoners; in 1861, upon 1 in 2,632·7 only, showing a decrease in the latter year of 75·8 per cent. in the number of whippings in proportion to the number of prisoners. In 1860, 1 in every 2,161·5 of the total number of prisoners was put in irons; in 1861, 1 in 2,262·5, showing a proportionate decrease of 4·6 per cent. As in the preceding year, the females bore the larger proportion of this punishment also in 1861. Among the males it was inflicted upon 1 in every 2,470·6; among the females, upon 1 in every 1,804·7. The following are the numbers of the punishments of each description inflicted in 1861:

	Males.	Females.	TOTAL.
Whipping	55	—	55
Irons or handcuffs	44	20	64
Solitary or dark cells	9,461	1,299	10,760
Stoppage of diet	20,232	4,107	24,339
Other punishments	2,521	149	2,670
Total	32,313	5,575	37,888

Following a decrease of 14 which was shown in the number of prison officers for 1860 as compared with 1859, there is a further decrease of 54 for 1861 as compared with 1860. This, together with the increase in the number of prisoners, reduces the proportion to 1 officer for 7 of the daily average number of prisoners, the proportion in 1860 having been 1 to 6·5. While a decrease appears in every other rank, there was an increase in 1861 as compared with 1860, of 24 in the number of clerks and schoolmasters. Omitting this rank from the number of officers for each of the two years, the decrease in the remaining ranks will be 75 for 1861 as compared with 1860. This decrease is no doubt owing to the reduction which has been shown in the number of prisons.

The prison costs are distinguished under the same heads as usual. Under the first head, viz. for buildings and establishment charges, an increase appears, as compared with 1860, amounting to 12,428*l.* 6*s.* 0*d.* in the extraordinary charges for repayment of money borrowed, interest, &c., with a decrease of 22,659*l.* 11*s.* 11*d.* for new buildings, &c. In the ordinary annual charges the different items vary for the two years, the total amount showing an increase of 1,448*l.* 7*s.* 7*d.* in 1861. Under the second head there is a decrease of 3,392*l.* 13*s.* 3*d.* in the amount of officers' salaries and fees, and of 59*l.* 18*s.* 11*d.* in the amount for clothing and allowances, with an increase of 12*l.* 1*s.* 0*d.* for pensions. Under the third head, as was to be expected from the increase in the number of prisoners under detention, there is an increase in each item amounting to 18,544*l.* 17*s.* 8*d.* for diet and sick allowances; to 2,464*l.* 1*s.* 0*d.* for clothing, &c.; and to 113*l.* 8*s.* 0*d.* for earnings, &c. The total costs show an increase of 8,898*l.* 17*s.* 2*d.*, or 1*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* per cent. as compared with 1860, the costs for the latter year having exceeded by 39,660*l.* 12*s.* 1*d.*, or about 8 per cent., the costs for 1859.

On a comparison of the years 1861 and 1860, the yearly average charge per prisoner varies considerably under the different divisions of cost. Under buildings and fittings, it is less in 1861 by 1*l.* 5*s.* 8*d.*; under officers and attendants, it is less by 17*s.* 7*d.*; under prisoners' diet and clothing, it is higher by 17*s.* 2*d.*; under the total charges it is less by 1*l.* 6*s.* 1*d.*; omitting the charge for buildings and fittings, it is less by 5*s.* 3*d.* It however, considerably exceeds the average for the three years preceding 1860.

In many of the County and Borough prisons this average continues to be much higher than the above. In Oakham County Goal and House of Correction, where in 1860 it was 88*l.* 19*s.* 0*d.*, in 1861 it was 87*l.* 4*s.* 7*d.*, being the highest of any prison for the latter year. In Ilford County House of Correction it was 69*l.* 13*s.* 8*d.* In Lincoln County Gaol it was 61*l.* 2*s.* 1*d.*, having been for the previous year 83*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* Among the Borough Prisons the highest averages are at King's Lynn, 69*l.* 15*s.* 7*d.*; South Molton 69*l.* 15*s.* 0*d.*; Penzance 62*l.* 3*s.* 5*d.* On the other hand, the lowest averages are for Counties at Winchester and Durham, respectively 18*l.* 3*s.* 8*d.* and 18*l.* 7*s.* 4*d.*; at Salford and Preston, 19*l.* 0*s.* 3*d.* and 19*l.* 11*s.* 9*d.*; for Boroughs, at Kingston-upon Hull, 16*l.* 4*s.* 2*d.*; Portsmouth, 18*l.* 6*s.* 5*d.*; Tynemouth, 19*l.* 2*s.* 5*d.*; Liverpool, 19*l.* 8*s.* 10*d.*; Leeds, 19*l.* 18*s.* 5*d.*

Funds from which Costs defrayed, (Table, p. 87.)

The County and Borough prisons being provided and controlled by the local authorities, the principal part of the charges incurred in their maintenance is derived from local rates and funds, about one fifth of the total amount being contributed from the public revenues by an annual vote in Parliament, under the different heads stated below.

The total receipts from which the prison expenses for the year were defrayed were as follows. The details for each prison are given fully in the Table:—

Convict Prisons, (Table, p. 90.)

The ten convict prisons continue to be appropriated respectively to the purposes which have been described in the statistics of former years, viz.; Millbank and Pentonville to the imprisonment of convicts undergoing the first stage of discipline in separate confinement; Chatham, Portland, and Portsmouth, to convicts employed on government works; Dartmoor and Woking as invalid establishments for males; Parkhurst for the reformatory discipline of boys under sentence of penal servitude or imprisonment; Brixton and Fulham, and a part of Millbank for females. The cells rented by the government at Wakefield and Leicester are also continued; the convicts imprisoned there, although all their expenses are defrayed by government, being under the superintendence of the visiting Justices of the respective counties rather than under the Directors of Convict Prisons, and being calculated in the Returns for the County Prisons, and not in those made by the Chairman of the Directors of Convict Prisons, by whom the Returns for the convict prisons are furnished.

The returns for the convict prisons for the year ended the 29th September 1861 show smaller totals, both at the commencement and at the close of the year, than the Returns for 1860, the numbers for the former year being less than the numbers for 1860 by 0·7 per cent. at the commencement and by 8·6 per cent. at the close of the year. At the same time the numbers received from the county and borough prisons in 1861 exceeded the numbers received in 1860 by 161, or in the proportion of 5·2 per cent. The cause of the smaller number remaining at the close of 1861 must therefore be looked for in the number disposed of during the year. Under this head the number for 1861 exceeds the number for 1860 by 774, or in the proportion of 20·6 per cent. Comparing the numbers disposed of for the two years under the different heads, it will be found that the totals for 1860 are greatest under removals; to county gaols, 14 in 1860 against 11 in 1861; to lunatic asylums, 37 in 1860 against 24 in 1861. The number discharged on termination of sentence in 1860 also exceeded the number in 1861 by 574, or in the proportion of 29·8 per cent. The number of deaths also was greater in the former year by almost 25 per cent. and 8 convicts escaped in that year against 2 in 1861. It is under the heads "removal to the colonies," and "discharged on tickets of leave," that the excess is found in 1861; under the former in the proportion of 54 per cent. and under the latter of 64·7 per cent.

The total daily average was less in 1861 than in the preceding year, in the proportion of 4·4 per cent. and less than the numbers the prisons are capable of containing in the proportion of 12·6 per cent.

The following are the numbers taken from the Returns for 1861:—

Deaths and Cases of Sickness.

The sanitary state of the prisons appears to have been satisfactory during the year. 76 deaths occurred; 60 among the males, 16 among the females, being one male in every 153·2 of the total number of males; one female in every 105·2 of the females. At Pentonville, where 1,240 convicts were imprisoned during the year, the daily average having been 438, not a single death occurred; the largest numbers, as was to be expected, will be found at the invalid establishments; 25 cases or 1 in every 32 of the total number of prisoners at Woking, which prison is appropriated to the worst cases; and 17 cases, or 1 in every 100·8 of the prisoners at Dartmoor, who are capable of light labour. Among the females, 12 deaths, or one in every 85·5 of the total number of prisoners occurred at Brixton, where the invalids are assembled; 3, or 1 in every 301·3 at Millbank; and a single case among 339 prisoners at Fulham. Of infirmary cases there were 6,405:—5,927, or 1 for every 1·5 of the male prisoners among the males; 478, or 1 for every 3·3 of the female prisoners among the females,—these proportions having been precisely the same for the preceding year. The cases of slight indisposition show an average of 13·1 to each male, of 5·7 only to each female, these proportions having been for the preceding year 16 to each male, and 6·3 to each female.

A comparison of the total cases of sickness, exclusive of insanity, for the two years gives 13·9 to each prisoner in 1860; 12·6 to each prisoner in 1861. The cases of insanity show one for every 3860·2 of the prisoners in 1860; 1 for every 4896 in 1861.

The deaths were 1 in every 107·7 of the total number of prisoners in 1860; 1 in every 143·1 in 1861.

Prison Punishments.

The punishments for prison offences during the year were:—

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Corporal punishments - -	97	—	97
Solitary or dark cells - -	246	703	949
Stoppage of diet - - -	2,302	501	2,803
Other punishments - -	4,008	263	4,271
	6,653	1,467	8,120

The corporal punishments, which in 1860, were in the proportion of 1 for every 170·9 of the male prisoners, increased in 1861, to 1 for every 94·7, or fully 55 per cent. Half the cases (48) however, in the latter year occurred at Chatham; all but one single case, as explained by the Chairman of the Directors, being consequent upon the mutiny in that prison. Deducting the 47 cases among the mutineers, the remaining 50 punishments would be in the reduced proportion of 1 for every 183·8 of the male prisoners. Of the punishments next in severity, confinement in solitary or dark cells, there was 1 for every 2 of the females, 1 for every 27 only of the males; while of the minor punishments of stoppage of diet, &c. there was 1 for every 1·5 of the male prisoners; one for every 2·2 only of the females. The total punishments inflicted upon males give 1 punishment for every 1·4 of the male prisoners; the total upon females give 1 for every 1·1 of the female prisoners. In the preceding year the proportion with regard to the males was the same; there was 1 punishment for every 1·3 of the female prisoners.

From a statement furnished by the Chairman of Directors it appears, however, that in reality frequent punishments are inflicted upon the same individuals, and that about three fourths of the total number of prisoners for the past year received no punishment whatever. The proportions given are 28·1 per cent. of the males punished, leaving 79·9 per cent. who received no punishment; 15·8 per cent. of the females punished, 84·2 per cent. not punished.

Tickets-of-Leave.

The system of granting tickets-of-leave after the completion of stated portions of the sentences where no misconduct in prison excludes the convicts from the privilege, becoming annually applicable under the Act of 1857 to the cases of a large number of the prisoners in the convict prisons, it will be seen that the number of tickets-of-leave granted during the past year largely exceeded (by 64·7 per cent.,) the number in the preceding year, the number in 1860 having been more than double the number in 1859.

Establishments of the Prisons.

The total number of officers on the establishments of the different convict prisons in 1861, viz. 1,182, is less by four than the number for the preceding year. A reduction of one chaplain has been made at Parkhurst. With an increase of two in the number of clerks, and of three females in the class "Subordinate officers, &c.," there has been a decrease of eight males in this latter class. The following table shows the details,—

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Governors and deputy governors - - -	16	4	20
Chaplains and assistant chaplains - - -	15	—	15
Schoolmasters, Scripture readers, and schoolmistresses	42	16	58
Medical officers - - - - -	16	—	16
Clerks - - - - - -	60	—	60
Subordinate officers, servants, and guards - -	917	96	1,013
Total - - - -	1,066	116	1,182

The daily average number of prisoners having been less in 1861 than in the preceding year, the proportion of officers is consequently higher in the former year, viz., 1 officer to 6·2 of the daily average number of prisoners for 1861, 1 to 6·5 for 1860.

Costs of each Prison.

The actual prison expenses for the year, exclusive of the gratuities and allowances paid to convicts on their discharge, but including buildings, repairs, &c., were as follows for each of the convict prisons :—

Convict Prisons.

The total amount exceeds by 3,853*l.* or about 1·5 per cent. the total for the preceding year. The average per convict is also somewhat higher, having been 32*l.* 9*s.* 1*d.* in 1860. It will, however, be observed that more than half the entire cost is chargeable to officers and repairs.

The actual receipts for rent of officers' quarters, sale of old stores, &c. amounted to 5,965*l.* 10*s.* 3*d.*, and the value of the productive labour which the Chairman of Directors reports was actually paid over to the Exchequer, to 6,500*l.* 17*s.* 2*d.*, making together the sum of 12,466*l.* 7*s.* 5*d.*, which, deducted from the total shown in the table, reduces the amount to 241,265*l.* 3*s.* 8*d.*, and the average charge per convict to 32*l.* 15*s.* 10*d.*

The greatest amount of convict labour, however, is devoted to public works at Portland, Chatham, and Portsmouth, and is not made the subject of an account with the department concerned. The approximate value is thus reported by the Chairman of Directors:—

Reformatory Schools, (Table, p. 92.)

A further increase of three will be found in the number of the Reformatory Schools certified by the Secretary of State pursuant to the statutes of the 17th & 18th Vict. c. 86., and 19th and 20th Vict. c. 109, for the teaching, discipline, and industrial training of youthful offenders, four new schools having been certified within the year, and the certificate of one having been withdrawn. The numbers committed to these schools in 1861 also considerably exceeded the numbers committed in any previous year, (the increase was 12·3 per cent. as compared with 1860).

The reformatory schools are private institutions established for charitable purposes to which, after they have been certified by the Secretary of State, offenders under 16 years of age, whether convicted upon indictment or summarily by justices, may, after a short term of previous imprisonment, be sent for not less than two years or more than five years, and where the offenders are subjected to the same treatment as the unconvicted inmates, only being liable to imprisonment for any attempt to escape.

The number of schools certified and the number of committals for each year from the passing of the first above mentioned Act to 1861 inclusive were as follows:—

As in the preceding year, the largest proportion (43·1 per cent. in 1861, 40·3 per cent. in 1860) of the commitments to the reformatories was for the longest period allowed by law. The next largest proportion (27·3 per cent. in 1861, 27·9 per cent. in 1860) was for three years and above two. The next greatest proportions (20·8 per cent. in 1861, 22·3 per cent. in 1860) were for four years and above three; and the least proportions (8·8 per cent. in 1861, 9·5 per cent. in 1860) were for the shortest period of detention. In the same manner with regard to the periods of previous imprisonment, the highest proportion in each year (43·6 per cent. in 1861. 43·4 per cent. in 1860) was for 1 month and above 14 days. The next highest proportion (36·8 per cent. in 1861, 33·1 per cent. in 1860) for 14 days. The next (13·3 per cent. in 1861, 13·5 per cent. in 1860,) for 2 months and above 1. The next (6·3 per cent. in 1861, 9·3 per cent. in 1860) for 4 months and above 2; the previous imprisonment of 8 individuals in 1860 having been above 4 months, while there were 210 previous commitments for this period in 1861.

State of the Reformatories.

The state of the reformatories in 1861 was as follows:—

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Number at the commencement of the year	2,300	570	2,870
Committed during the year	1,001	236	1,237
Received from other certified Reformatories	44	48	92
Received from prison after confinement	13	3	16
Readmitted after absconding	17	2	19
Returned from licence, leave of absence, or service	2	2	4
Total	3,377	861	4,238
Discharged on order from the Secretary of State	393	82	475
Discharged on completion of their term of detention	258	69	327
Absconded and not retaken	55	5	60
Committed to prison for refractory conduct	27	3	30
Removed to other certified reformatory schools	46	81	127
Died	12	8	20
Total	791	248	1,039
Number remaining under detention at the end of the year	2,586	613	3,199

The number discharged on order from the Secretary of State was greater in 1861 than in 1860 in the proportion of 92·5 per cent. The number discharged on completion of their term was the same in each year. The total number discharged was greater in 1861 than in 1860 in the proportion of 39·4 per cent.

The total number discharged in 1861 was 64·2 per cent. of the number committed. This proportion in 1860 was 51·9 per cent., in 1859 it was 47·8 per cent.

The number remaining under detention at the end of the year was greater for 1861 than for 1860 by 377, or 13·1 per cent.

The classified numbers of the previous commitments to prison of the offenders committed to the reformatories in 1861, were,—

	Males.	Females.	Total
Once	260	34	294
Twice	119	9	128
Thrice	37	4	41
Four times	15	—	15
Five times	6	1	7
Seven times and above five times	9	—	9
Ten times and above seven times	7	—	7
Above ten times	3	1	4
Total	456	49	505

Reformatory Schools.

The foregoing table shows that a smaller number as compared with 1860, and consequently the number of commitments having been greater in 1861, that a considerably smaller proportionate number of those sent to reformatories in the latter year, had been in prison previously to the convictions on which they were sent to the reformatories. The proportion in 1860 was 49·1 per cent.; in 1861 it was 40·8 per cent., leaving in the latter year 59·2 per cent. against 50·9 per cent. in 1860 as the proportionate number who were sent to reformatories in those years respectively upon their first conviction.

Ages and Instruction.

The ages of those committed in 1861, and their state of instruction when received, were—

	Aged 10 and under.	11.	12.	13.	14.	15.	16.
Neither read nor write:
Males	48	52	53	95	101	80	31
Females	5	12	14	17	20	17	4
Read or read and write imperfectly:
Males	29	36	63	84	90	92	44
Females	12	4	20	21	29	24	9
Read and write well:
Males	1	4	10	18	25	32	12
Females	2	1	3	6	9	6	1
Superior instruction	—	—	—	—	—	1	—
Instruction not ascertained	—	—	—	—	—	—	—

The proportion of those who could neither read nor write was,—males 45·9 per cent. of the males, females 45·7 per cent. of the females. These proportions in 1860 were, males 45·8 per cent. of the males, females 45·7 per cent. of the females. Of those who could read or read and write imperfectly, the proportions were in 1861, males 43·7 per cent. of the males, females 50·4 per cent. of the females; in 1860, males 43·5 per cent. of the males, females 43.3 per cent of the females. Of those who could read and write well, the proportions were in 1861, males 10·2 per cent. of the males, females 11·9 per cent. of the females; in 1860, males 9·5 per cent. of the males, females 7·0 per cent. of the females; of superior instruction there was one individual in each year.

Costs for 1861.

The total expenses of this class of offenders, defrayed from the public revenues at the rate of 7*s.* per week for each prisoner, were for 1861, 52,385*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* The amount recovered from the parents in diminution of this charge was 2,238*l.* 6*s.* 3*d.*

For 1860 and 1859.

These amounts for each of the two preceding years were for 1860, 45,539*l.* 10*s.* 10*d.* and 2,079*l.* 17*s.* 10*d.*, for 1859, 38,853*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.* and 1,594*l.* 0*s.* 8*d.*

Middlesex Industrial School, (Table, p. 94.)

In addition to the foregoing reformatory schools, and differing from them only on the points which have been explained in former years, viz., that the commitments are made directly to the school without intervening imprisonment in gaol, and that the age of those who may be committed is limited to 14 years, and the period of detention to not less than one year nor more than three years,—there remains to be mentioned the Middlesex Industrial School at Feltham, established under the local Statute 17th and 18th Vict., c. 169. In this school, at the commencement of the year, that is, on the 30th September 1860, there were 261 offenders in custody. 189 were committed during the year, which, with 1 readmitted after absconding, made a total of 451. Of these 24 were discharged on the completion of their term of detention; 2 have been sentenced to 3 years penal servitude, and one to 2 years confinement in the Cornwall Reformatory Hulk, upon conviction for absconding and taking away property belonging to the county, or to officers of the school; 1 was discharged on a revision of his sentence, and 1 died; a reduction of 29 being thus made during the year, which, taken from the total above shown, leaves 422 as the number remaining in detention at the close of the year, being an increase of 161, or 61·7 per cent., above the number remaining at the close of the preceding year.

Of the 189 who were committed during the year, 13·2 per cent. were convicted on indictment; 86·8 per cent. were committed on summary conviction. These proportions in the preceding year were 14·7 per cent. on indictment; 85·3 per cent. on summary conviction. In 1860, 6·9 per cent. of the number of sentences were for 2 years and under; 93·1 per cent. for 3 years and above 2. In 1859, 7·9 per cent. were for 2 years and under; 92·1 per cent. for 3 years and above two. MIDDLESEX INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

Of those committed in 1860, 10·6 per cent. were 10 years of age and under; 14·8 per cent. 11 years of age and above 10; 23·8 per cent. 12 and above 11; 39·7 per cent. 13 and above 12; 11·1 per cent. 14 and above 13.

72 of the boys, or 38 per cent. of the whole number, committed in the year, had lost one of their parents; 13 had lost both; 7 were deserted by one of their parents; 1 by both; 1 had one of his parents in prison; 13 were otherwise uncontrolled by one of their parents; 1 by both; 61, or 32·2 per cent. of the whole number, had been under the control of one parent; 97, or 51·3 per cent., of both.

48, or 25·4 per cent., had been previously committed to prison; 32, or 16·9 per cent., once; 9, twice; 5, three times; and 2, four times. 141, or 74·6 per cent., consequently had not previously been in prison.

By "The Industrial Schools Act, 1861," the 24th and 25th Vict., c. 113, the two former Acts relating to Industrial Schools are repealed, provision being made that any certificate granted under the former Acts shall not be affected by the repeal. In the schools to which the Act is to be applied, industrial training must be practised, and the children are to be clothed, lodged, and fed as well as taught, the managers of the school being authorized to permit any child to sleep or lodge with its parents or any respectable person. Before children can be received into any such school in pursuance of the Act, the managers must have obtained the certificate of the Secretary of State, who is authorized on their application to cause the condition of the school to be examined into and reported on to him. Provision is also made for the annual inspection of the schools and for the withdrawal of the certificate from any school with the condition of which the Secretary of State is dissatisfied upon the report made to him by the Inspector. By the 8th section of the Act the Guardians of the Poor may, with consent of the Poor Law Board, contract with the managers of any certified Industrial School for the maintenance and education of any pauper child. As, however, children sent under this provision are not committed by magisterial authority, they would not appear to come within the scope of these statistics, and, therefore, no inquiry has been made respecting them. In the following section of the Act, the class of children liable to be sent to these schools in pursuance of its provisions is described; viz., any child apparently under 14 years of age found begging or receiving alms, or being in any street or public place for the purpose of begging or receiving alms, or that is found wandering and not having any home or settled place of abode or any visible means of subsistence, or that frequents the company of reputed thieves, or whose parent represents that he is unable to control him, and gives such security as may be approved by the justices before whom he is brought in pursuance of the Act, to pay all expenses incurred for maintenance of such child at school; also, any child apparently under 12 years of age who, having committed an offence punishable by imprisonment or any less punishment, ought nevertheless in the opinion of the justices, regard being had to his age and to the circumstances of the case, to be sent to an Industrial School. Industrial Schools, (Table, p. 94.)

The Act having received the Royal Assent only on the 6th August, was consequently in force for less than two months of the period to which the present statistics apply. During that time two schools were certified, making with the 18 schools remaining certified under the former Acts, as mentioned in last year's statistics, and three others certified between the 1st October 1860 and the 6th August 1861, 23 Industrial Schools to which the provisions of the present Act are applicable.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOLS.

Of these 23 schools the names of 14 will be found in the Table, seven in the Metropolis, and seven in the Provinces in which children were detained under the provisions of the Act, at the date of the return.

At the commencement of the year, that is, on the 30th September 1860, 164 children,—90 males and 74 females, were under detention, distributed among 12 different schools. During the year 62 children,—53 males and 9 females, were committed, six of the number,—2 males and 4 females, to newly certified schools, making a total of 226 for the year,—143 males and 83 females. It must be here explained that in the return received from St. George's Industrial School, Liverpool, for 1859–60, the whole of the children were stated as males instead of females; and two deaths which had occurred during the year were omitted, by which latter oversight the number remaining in confinement at the close of the year was made to appear as 34 instead of 32; and the total number remaining under detention at the close of the year was consequently given in the statistics for that year as 166 instead of 164, the proper number. These errors, which were only discovered on the receipt of the return for this school for the year 1860–61, have been corrected in the present Tables.

During the past year 48 of the children under detention,—27 males and 21 females were disposed of as follows:—17 males and 10 females were discharged on suitable employment being found; 2 males and 4 females on completing the term of detention adjudged; 1 male and 3 females on attaining the age of 15 years; three females died; and seven males and one female absconded and were not retaken. Deducting these, there remained 178,—116 males and 62 females, in custody at the end of the year, being an increase of 8·5 per cent. upon the number remaining at the close of the preceding year.

The former Acts were applicable to children above seven and under fourteen years of age at the time of commitment; the present Act is limited merely to children apparently under 14 years of age. The ages at the time of commitment of the whole of the 226 children under detention within the year are given as follows:—

	Males.	Females.		Males.	Females.
6 years and under 7 -	—	1	10 years and under 11 -	24	11
7 „ „ 8 -	1	4	11 „ „ 12 -	32	11
8 „ „ 9 -	6	14	12 „ „ 13 -	34	16
9 „ „ 10 -	21	28	13 „ „ 14 -	23	14

Six,—two males and four females,—are given as between 14 and 15, and consequently above the legal age.

The total costs of the children for the year as stated in the returns (no amount is given for one school certified since the passing of the recent Act to which two children have been committed), amount to 2,862*l.* 17*s.* 3*d.*, which for the 226 children, gives an average of 11*l.* 15*s.* 3*d.* for each child.

The total amount recovered from the parents, appears to have been 77*l.* 16*s.* 9*d.* The whole details with regard to each school will be found in the table.

Under the recent Act, the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may contribute out of monies provided by Parliament towards the maintenance of any child sent to school pursuant to the Act, except children sent by desire of their parents, at such rate as may be recommended by the Secretary of State, or such portion of the cost as may not be recovered from the parents.

Justices may make an order on the parent of any child for payment of an amount not exceeding 5*s.* per week.

CRIMINAL LUNATICS, (Table, p. 95.)

The returns relating to Criminal Lunatics are for the year ended the 29th September 1861. These returns show the number under detention in lunatic asylums, hospitals, and licensed houses during the year, the conditions under which they were detained, the periods of their detention, their disposal, the offences for which they were in custody, and their cost.

The number in the year and their disposal were as follows:—

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Under detention at the commencement of the year	606	170	776
Received from other asylums	46	13	59
Committed in the year	98	37	135
Total	750	220	970
Discharged or removed; viz.:—
Died	39	10	49
Committed suicide	—	—	—
Escaped	4	—	4
On becoming sane	27	13	40
Removed, sane, for trial or punishment	17	3	20
Removed to other asylums	47	11	58
Total	134	37	171
Remaining under detention	616	183	799

Increase.

An increase of 23 or 2·9 per cent. appears in the number remaining at the close of the year as compared with the number under detention at its commencement, there having been an increase of 58 or 7·5 per cent. in 1860, following an increase in each of the three preceding years. The increase in the number remaining under detention at the close of last year as compared with 1856, amounts to 202 or 33·8 per cent.

Offences for which detained, (Table, p. 97.)

The offences for which these lunatics were in custody in 1861 are shown in detail in the table, the greatest numbers being,—for larcenies, 234 or 24·1 per cent. of the whole; for murder, 141 or 14·5 per cent. of the whole; and for attempts to murder, 98 or 10·1 per cent. of the whole.

Judgments under which detained.

The following are the original judgments or orders under which the lunatics were detained, with the proportion per cent. which the numbers under each bear to the whole.

Judgments on Orders.	Number.	Proportion per. cent. to whole Number.
Found insane	131	13·5
Acquitted insane	140	14·4
Insane, committed by Justices	88	9·1
Dangerous lunatics, committed by Justices	7	0·7
Convicts becoming insane after trial, and removed by order of the Secretary of State	604	62·3
	970	100·0

The table shows also the periods for which those detained for each crime have been under detention, with the number under each period of detention.

The number under each period, and the proportion per cent. borne by each number to the whole, are as follows,—

	Number of Persons.	Proportion per cent. to whole number.
One year and under	189	19·5
Two years and above one	199	20·5
Three years and above two	121	12·5
Five years and above three	128	13·2
Ten years and above five	203	20·9
Fifteen years and above ten	60	6·2
Twenty years and above fifteen	41	4·3
Above twenty years	29	2·9
	970	100·0

Costs. (Table, p. 96.)

The total charges for the above criminal lunatics in the year were 26,701*l.* 6*s.* 11*d.*, being an increase of 1,160*l.* 3*s.* 10*d.*, or about 4·5 per cent. upon the total charges for the preceding year.

Criminal Lunatics.

The amounts chargeable to each of the different funds from which the costs are defrayed, and the proportion per cent. which each amount bears to the total, were as follows,—

	£	s.	d.
County Rates	4,208	1	6	15·8
Borough Rates or Funds	1,040	4	6	3·9
Parish Rates	5,593	1	10	20.9
Public Revenues	14,184	16	8	53·1
Private Funds	1,675	2	5	6·3
Total	26,701	6	11	100·0

Under the head of Parish Rates there is a decrease in the amount for 1861 of 296*l.* 3*s.* 11*d.* The increase extends to each of the other heads, amounting under County Rates to 146*l.* 18*s.* 5*d.*; under Borough Rates or Funds, to 158*l.* 12*s.* 1*d.*; under Public Revenues, to 1,140*l.* 11*s.* 11*d.*; and under Private Funds, to 10*l.* 14*s.* 5*d.*

Costs per head.

In the costs per head, the variation which has been before remarked is still observable. The Medway Union still maintains a single case at the low rate of 13*l.* per annum; in different private asylums, individual cases appear in which the charges amount respectively to 531*l.* 16*s.* 0*d.*, 480*l.*, 200*l.*, 150*l.*, 120*l.*; these high charges being however all defrayed from private resources.

In two of these cases the crimes committed by the lunatics were murder, in two attempts to murder, in one embezzlement and fraud.

In Bethlehem Hospital, where the whole expenses are paid from the public revenues, the cost per head is 43*l.* 10*s.* 8*d.*; in Fisherton House, the expenses being likewise chargeable to the public, with a contribution from the county rate, the cost per head is 32*l.* 16*s.* 11*d.*; for the 36 county asylums, the average cost per head is 23*l.* 17*s.* 9*d.*

These returns complete the first part of the Statistics for 1861. Under each head, Police, Criminal Proceedings, and Prisons, an increase of crime appears, although not to any great extent, as compared with the preceding year.

JUDICIAL STATISTICS.

PART II.

ENGLAND AND WALES.

COMMON LAW—EQUITY—CIVIL AND CANON LAW.

RETURNS FOR THE YEAR 1861,

Compiled by Order of Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department,

COMPRISING

The Superior Courts of Common Law, the County Courts, and other Courts for the Recovery of Small Debts.

The Bankruptcy Courts, and the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

The Courts of Equity, the Court of Probate, the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, the Ecclesiastical Courts, the Admiralty Court.

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, and the Judicial Proceedings of the House of Lords.

INTRODUCTORY AND EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

In the second part of the Judicial Statistics for 1861 returns are given in the tables in the same form, under the same arrangement, and with the same details as for the preceding years for every class of courts, and, it is believed, for every court exercising jurisdiction in civil matters.

A summary of the business of each class of courts will be found in the introductory part, with generally a comparison of the amount of business in 1861, and in the preceding years. The effect of the change in the law of bankruptcy is adverted to under County Courts (p. 105.), Courts of Bankruptcy (p. 108.), and Insolvent Debtors Court (p. 113.)

Common Law Courts. (Tables pp. 135–143.)

The returns for the three superior courts of Common Law give the same full details of the proceedings on the plea side for the year 1861 as have been given for the preceding years. The proceedings under the peculiar jurisdiction of the Court of Queen's Bench on the Crown side are also shown under the same heads as heretofore, with some additional observations and matter.

Offences tried on the Crown side.

The following are the total proceedings under this jurisdiction, as taken from the table for the year 1861, placed in comparison with the total for the preceding year.

	1861.	1860.
On Writs of Mandamus—Applications on affidavit	72	61
On Quo Warranto—Informations filed	7	7
On Writs of Habeas Corpus—Applications for Writs	63	47
On Writs of Certiorari—Writs issued	74	69
Judgments and Executions	18	25
On Grand Jury Bills	—	—
On Informations ex officio	—	10
On Orders of Sessions—Removed into Queen's Bench	25	30
On Special Cases from Quarter Sessions (12 & 13 Vict. c. 45.)	11	22
On Special Cases on Proceedings before Justices (20 & 21 Vict. c. 43.)	45	59

Her Majesty's coroner and attorney and the master of the Crown office have added a statement of the nature of the offences tried on the Crown side of the Court of Queen's Bench, comprising conspiracies, perjuries, assaults, nuisances, and other misdemeanors, and occasionally, but rarely, felonies. No record, however, it is stated, is kept in the Crown office of the number of cases, or of the number of persons tried, as the trials take place at Nisi Prius in London and Middlesex, and at the assizes for the counties generally. Nor, it is added, is any record kept in the Crown office of sentences of imprisonment, whether with or without fines, except in certain cases in which judgment is entered up in the Queen's Bench; and in certain cases of fines and other punishments where the sentences are passed by the court in Banco, which seldom occurs now as sentences are by virtue of statute 11th Geo. 4. and 1st Will. 4. c. 70. almost invariably passed by the judge at Nisi Prius, and not afterwards entered up of record in the Queen's Bench. In the year 1861 judgment was entered up in the Queen's Bench in the cases of seven persons acquitted and eleven convicted, the sentences having been, in one case, a fine of 170*l.* upon the inhabitants of two places, to be laid out in the repair of a road, and in another case, eight months imprisonment against the parties and to give security for good behaviour for two years.

Common Law Courts.

Fees in the Crown office.

The total amount of fees received in the Crown office in 1861 was 658*l.* 2*s.* 7*d.*; in the two preceding years it was, respectively, 637*l* 14*s.* 11*d.* and 650*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* The amounts stated include all the fees received at the office, not only in respect of the particular items specified, but also for other duties, as writs of subpœna ad testificandum, copies of proceedings, &c. No fees are now allowed to be taken for duties performed for any of the Government Boards. It is further observed that there are many court fees which are paid by parties proceeding in the Crown office which are not received by or for the office, but by other officers of the court, of which no account is kept in the Crown office.

Business of the courts.

The amount of the chief proceedings of each of the three superior courts on the Plea side is shown in the following summary, extracted from the returns made by the Masters, for the year 1861. The totals of the similar proceedings in the three courts are also given for the preceding year. A comparison will show a considerable increase under every head in 1861. An increase had appeared also in 1860 as compared with 1859 under every head except writs of Capias and Causes referred to Masters. The increase in 1861 in the number of writs of summons issued is 17·1 per cent. upon the number for 1860, and amounts to no less than 32·4 per cent. upon the number for 1859. In the amount of fees also, it will be seen, there was an increase amounting to upwards of 15 per cent., and following an increase of 9 per cent. in 1860 as compared with 1859.

Causes for trial.

The proceedings are next shown as returned on their entry for trial, by the Associates of the three courts with regard to the business at Westminster, and by the clerks of Assize and clerks of the Crown with regard to the business on Circuit. The following abstract shows for each of the three superior courts the number of causes entered for trial both at Westminster and on Circuit, the number of trials and the number of causes withdrawn, struck out, &c. To these must be added 40 causes entered for trial on Circuit in the Common Pleas of Lancaster, 4 in the Court of Pleas of Durham, and 7 issues from the Court of Probate. The totals for 1860 are given for comparison, but to the number entered for trial on Circuit in that year must be added 44 causes in the Common Pleas of Lancaster, 8 in the Court of Pleas of Durham, and two issues from the Court of Probate. A comparison of the totals shows that the number of causes entered for trial at Westminster in 1861 exceeded the number in 1860 by 12·4 per cent., and at Nisi Prius by 8·5 per cent.

Judgments.

The Returns made by the Masters for the Courts at Westminster show without distinction the judgments in the causes tried both at Westminster and on Circuit. Parties for whom verdicts are given at Nisi Prius may make application for the return of the issues into the Courts at Westminster; but in some cases a compromise is made after the verdict, and no further proceedings appear. The judgments in 1861 were under the following terms in each of the three courts. The total number in 1860 is added, and a comparison of the totals shows an increase in 1861 of 15·6 per cent., following an increase of about 10 per cent. in the number for 1860 as compared with 1859:—

Forms of verdict.

The returns made by the Associates show also the results of the causes tried in each of the courts at Westminster. The returns made by the clerks of Assize, and clerks of the Crown in the Counties Palatine, show the results of the causes tried on Circuit. The following abstract of these returns shows the manner in which the whole of the causes tried at Westminster and at Nisi Prius were disposed of, including those in the Common Pleas Courts of Lancaster and Durham, and seven causes from the Court of Probate, the total being given for 1860:—

Amounts recovered.

The following table shows, as abstracted from the returns made by the Associates and the clerks of Assize and clerks of the Crown, the amounts for which verdicts were obtained in each of the three Superior Courts and upon Circuit. The total amount recovered exceeds the amount shown in the returns for 1860 by 75,547*l.*, or 35·8 per cent. :—

Executions.

The Masters' returns next show the executions which followed the foregoing judgments. More than two thirds (66·9 per cent.) were writs of Fieri facias, to levy upon the goods; 31·0 per cent. were writs of Capias ad satisfaciendum, against the person; 1·5 per cent. were writs of possession after recovery in ejectment; the remaining 0·6 per cent. being under the other forms stated below. The number under each class in 1860 is added to the table, and a comparison between the totals for the two years shows an increase of 18·5 per cent. in the total number of writs issued in 1861.

New trials, &c.

The judgments are subject to revision by the Courts sitting in Banco, on motions for new trial, or to enter or alter verdict, or for nonsuit, or arrest of judgment, or non obstante veredicto. The returns made by the Masters show that 605 such motions were made; so that in one in every 68·2 of the judgments obtained in 1861 a revision of the judgment was applied for. These 605 motions were disposed of as follows:—

Issue of the proceedings.

A review of the proceedings shows that, 114,301 writs of summons (which represent the suits commenced) having been issued, and only 29,100 appearances, or one in four (25·4 per cent.) of the writs of summons, having been entered, almost three fourths of the claims were uncontested; and, further, that of the 29,100 causes in which appearances were entered, 3,629 only were entered for trial, the suits being thus further reduced by 12·4 per cent. Of these again, 2,157, or 1·9 per cent. only of the suits commenced, were actually tried.

COMMON LAW COURTS.

The issue of the suits however, is not shown by these decisions but by the number of judgments obtained. As already shown, under the various forms of procedure judgments were given in 41,297 cases, or in 36·1 per cent. of the cases commenced, leaving 63·9 per cent. of the cases in which no proceedings were taken beyond the issue of the writ of summons, and which, must therefore have been settled between the parties themselves, or were not pursued by the plaintiffs, and were lost from the record. Writs for the enforcement of these judgments were issued in 30,523 cases, under the different forms which have been already specified.

Remanets.

The remanets in the respective courts at the end of each term are shown in the returns made by the Associates. Upon the large amount of procedure in 1861, the following were the numbers under the different descriptions for each of the four terms:—

	1861. In the quarters ending 31st March.	30th June.	30th Sept.	31st Dec.
Queen's Bench:
By consent	17	39	—	20
By injunction or decree	15	18	—	9

Common Pleas:

Exchequer:
By consent	2	13	1	8
By injunction or decree	—	2	—	1
For want of time to try	—	5	2	23

Civil suits, as has been remarked in former years, which are brought by individuals to enforce their own private rights and claims may, unlike criminal proceedings, be terminated at any stage, by the withdrawal of the plaintiff or the submission of the defendant, and under various conditions, while the time which may elapse between the proceedings is uncertain. Causes may thus be lost sight of whereby the exact agreement of the separate returns from the different branches of the court is rendered impracticable. But the value of the Statistics, which accurately represent the issues so far as they become matters of legal record, is not hereby in any degree lessened.

Business in Judges' Chambers.

The extensive business in chambers is shown in the following summary for each of the three superior courts in 1861, the totals under each head being added for 1860. The business in each chambers for 1861 is given in the tables:—

COMMON LAW COURTS.

The Queen's Remembrancer has furnished a return of the sittings in Banco of the Court of Exchequer in 1861 relating to the revenue business of the court. The matters argued appear to have been only four, judgments having been given in two causes argued in 1860. 81 motions in the year are recorded, 78 of which were for attachment, without argument. The return as given by the Queen's Remembrancer will be found in the table.

Revenue business, (Table, p. 141.)

The proceedings of the Court of Error and Appeals in the Exchequer Chamber complete the summary of the business of the three superior courts of common law for the year. The returns furnished by the Masters show in detail for each Court the proceedings submitted to the Court of Error and Appeals, the cases in which the proceedings took place, and the appeals from the Courts in Banco. The following are the totals of the cases from the three courts together, for each of the years 1861 and 1860:

Suitors' fund.

The returns given by the Masters show the following as the receipts to the Suitors' fund, with the amounts paid thereout and the balance for the year; also the fees levied, the disbursements therefrom, and the balance remaining.

The totals for the three courts are added for the preceding year, showing a considerable increase with regard to the fund, both in the amounts received and paid out for 1861, and also in the balance remaining. There was a considerable increase also it will be seen in the amount of fees levied in 1861, and in the balance remaining on this account.

COUNTY COURTS, (Table, p. 144.)

Jurisdiction of the County Courts.

The jurisdiction exercised by the County Courts under the Act of the 9 & 10 Vict. c. 95. and subsequent Acts for the recovery of debts continues as heretofore, and returns have been made in the usual form for each of the 59 County Court Circuits.

Insolvency discontinued.

By the Bankruptcy Act, 1861, the jurisdiction of the County Courts for the relief of insolvent debtors ceased from the 11th October of that year, except for the completion of matters then pending or remaining incomplete. Subject to this limitation the proceedings of the County Courts with regard to matters relating to insolvency

COUNTY COURTS.

Powers given in bankruptcy.

will be found under the head of Insolvent Debtors' Court as in former years. Under the new Bankruptcy Act the powers vested in the Commissioners of the district Courts of Bankruptcy are given to the County Court judges each in his respective district, excepting the judges of the Metropolitan County Courts. Returns are to be made annually by the officers of the Bankruptcy Court in London, and of the district Courts of Bankruptcy, and by the registrars of the County Courts acting in bankruptcy, to the chief registrar in London, by whom a general return, judicial and financial, as to all matters within the Act is to be framed, to be laid before Parliament. Such return will no doubt render unnecessary any special return for the purposes of the Judicial Statistics, and as no return under this Act has yet been framed, no information as to the proceedings of the County Courts in matters relating to bankruptcy from the commencement of the Act to the close of the year 1861 can be given at present. This information must be reserved for the following year.

Jurisdiction in other matters.

The proceedings of the County Courts with respect to the arrest of absconding debtors under the Charitable Trusts Act, and with respect to orders made by justices under the 20 & 21 Vict. c. 85. for the protection of the property of females deserted by their husbands will be found in the Tables. The proceedings under the jurisdiction possessed by the County Courts in contentious cases relating to probates or administrations of wills are shown in the returns from the district Courts of Probate.

Increase in 1861.

In the total number of plaints entered the increase amounts to 121,573, or 15·5 per cent on the number for 1860. The number of plaints for sums not exceeding 20*l.* was 893,433, showing an increase of 120,018, or 15·5 per cent. on the number for 1860; the number for amounts above 20*l.* and not exceeding 50*l.*, was 10,442, being an increase of 1,531, or 17·1 per cent. upon the number for 1860.

In 1861, 52·4 per cent., in 1860, 49·6 per cent. of the plaints were determined in court; 99·8 per cent. of the number determined in 1861, 99·7 per cent. of those in 1860 were decided by the judge without a jury, a jury having been required in one case only in 513 in 1861; in one case in 434, in 1860. Of the judgments, 61·9 per cent. were for the plaintiff in 1861; 63·5 per cent. in 1860; in 1861, 34·8 per cent. for the plaintiff by consent; 32·5 per cent. in 1860. Nearly 0·2 per cent. in each year were for the plaintiff by default; in 1861, 1·3 per cent. were non-suits, 1·8 per cent. were for the defendant; in 1860 these proportions were above 1·8 per cent. and 1·9 per cent. respectively. The issue was for the plaintiff in 96·5 per cent. of the total cases in 1861; in 96·1 per cent. in 1860.

The number of judgment summonses shows an increase above the average of the two preceding years (there having been a decrease in 1860 as compared with 1859) of 12·6 per cent. with regard to those issued, and of 12·1 per cent. with regard to those heard. In the number of warrants of commitment issued, and of debtors imprisoned, there was a decrease in 1860 as compared with 1859. On the average of those two years the increase in 1861 is 7·4 per cent. with regard to the former; 8·2 per cent. with regard to the latter. In the number of executions issued against goods in 1861, there was an increase of 19·774, or 18·0 per cent. upon the number in 1860. In the number of sales made the increase in 1861 was 23·6 per cent. on the number in 1860. The increase in the total amount for which plaints were entered in 1861. was 286,290*l.* or 15·2 per cent. on the amount in the preceding year. The average amount for each plaint was 2*l.* 7*s.* 11*d.*, showing a decrease as compared with the preceding years; in 1860 the average was 2*l.* 8*s.* 1*d.*; in 1859, 2*l.* 9*s.* 1*d.*

The amount of the judgments obtained, exclusive of costs, was 49·6 per cent. of the amount sought to be recovered; in 1860, this proportion was 48·0 per cent. only.

The proportion per cent. which the number of cases in which judgments were obtained to the total number of plaints entered, was in 1861, 53·5; in 1860, 50·4; in 1859, 51·0. A remarkable increase appears in 1861 in the number of judgments obtained for debts above 50*l.*

Absconding debtors.

In 1861, 129 warrants to arrest absconding debtors were issued, the number having been only 50 in 1860. In 12 cases, bail was given; in 12 the debt and costs were paid; in 2 the warrants were suspended.

Charitable Trusts Act.

Under the Charitable Trusts Act, 16 matters only were heard, the numbers having been 137 in 1860, and 140 in 1859. 18 orders granting relief were made in 1861, the numbers having been for the preceding years respectively 133 and 137.

Protection orders.

Protection orders to women deserted by their husbands were registered in 631 cases; in 3 cases the orders were on hearing discharged; in 1860, 611 orders were registered and 4 discharged; in 1859, 719 were registered and 6 discharged.

Borough, Hundred, and Manorial Courts, (Table, p. 146.)

With regard to the remaining courts (of ancient jurisdiction) for the recovery of debts, the names of the 34 courts which were given last year will be found in the table for 1861. The returns again show that in eight of these (not all the same as last year) no proceedings took place in 1861.

In the Egremont Court Baron, in which 195 plaints were entered in 1860, no proceedings took place in 1861 in consequence of the death of the Deputy Steward, and no successor having been appointed.

In the Oswestry Court of Record one plaint only was entered; for the recovery of 4*l.* In the Lancaster Borough Court, three plaints were entered for an aggregate amount of 35*l.*, one of the cases having been for an amount above 20*l.* A reference to the table will show that in several of these courts a considerable amount of business is done. In the Sheriffs Court of London 11,602 plaints were entered, 137 of this number having been for sums above 20*l.* The average of the plaints in this court is 3*l.* 6*s.* 4*d.* The number of plaints entered in all the courts, exclusive of the Manchester and Salford courts of record, was 22,660, 2,517 of this number having been for sums above 20*l.* The total amounts for which proceedings were taken in the Manchester and Salford Courts were respectively 59,643*l.* and 35,110*l.* the total amount sought to be recovered in all the courts was 187,053*l.*; the amount of debt exclusive of costs, for which judgments were obtained, was 125,091*l.*; the amount of costs exclusive of fees, was 18,336*l.*; the total amount of fees, 11,713*l.* The amount of costs and fees together was upwards of 24·0 per cent. upon the amount of debt recovered.

Borough, Hundred, and Manorial Courts.

Lord Mayor's Court, (Table, p. 148.)

The registrar of the Lord Mayor's Court, London, has made a return for 1861, showing in the same form as in the preceding year the nature of the proceedings which came before the court. The number of actions entered was 3,930; ejectments, 6; apprentice petitions, 10. The total amount for which actions were entered was 80,084*l.* The number of foreign attachments entered, was 722, for a total amount of 316,404*l.*, of which number 279, representing an amount of 91,353*l.* were withdrawn and settled by the parties. The return will be found copied into the table, as received from the registrar, and appears to prove an increase generally in the business of the court for the past year.

Stannaries Courts, (Table, p. 147–8.)

The registrar of the Stannaries has furnished a return for 1861, showing the proceedings in the Court of the Vice Warden under the equity jurisdiction of the court, with regard to both the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, and under the common law jurisdiction, with regard to Cornwall, no causes having been tried under this jurisdiction in respect of the county of Devon. A reference to the table will show the details of the proceedings, which have been copied from the return.

Winding-up jurisdiction.

A return has also been given of the proceedings of the court on petitions for winding up under the Joint Stock Companies Acts 1856 and 1857, and of the proceeedings of the court not in any cause. The registrar has stated that the jurisdiction to wind up is at present limited to mining companies incorporated under the above acts, and that such incorporations are rare within the Stannaries, and are chiefly for the purpose of limiting liability. He adds that the first petition to wind up was filed in October 1860, and that as none of the companies had been completely wound up at the end of the year, the return, which will be found copied in the table, represents very imperfectly the working of the Acts within the Stannaries. He states further, that the jurisdiction is not resorted to until the calls are nearly exhausted and the property mortgaged to its full value; and also, that the court fees, and per centage sanctioned by the court, are less than those in the Court of Bankruptcy.

Courts of Bankruptcy.

The Bankruptcy returns for the seven district courts have been collected and arranged with the returns for the London court by the chief registrar of the court in London, in the same form as heretofore. They apply however only to the period from the commencement of the year to the 11th October, when the Bankruptcy Act 1861 came into operation. For this portion, as nearly as may be four fifths of the whole year, they give the same details as have been furnished for the preceding years, with regard to the proceedings in bankruptcy under the original jurisdiction of the court, the proceedings for private arrangements under the control of the court without bankruptcy, the proceedings for winding up Joint Stock Companies, and the proceedings under the statutes for making arrangements between debtors not being traders and their creditors. The first annual return to be laid before Parliament, pursuant to the Act of 1861, will no doubt commence from and include all matters subsequent to the date of the commencement of the Act; and this return it may be expected will be available for the statistics of next year.

The total of the proceedings in bankruptcy simply in all the courts for the portion of the year above-mentioned, in comparison with the total for the preceding year, was—

Number of Bankruptcies, (Table, p. 149.)

	1861.	1860.
Petitions for Adjudication by Creditors - -	725	848
Petitions for Adjudication by Traders against themselves -	366	432
Number of such Petitions prosecuted to Adjudication -	1,034	1,215
Petitions for Private Arrangement under the control of the Court, upon which Adjudications in Bankruptcy were made	49	56

Of the petitions presented in 1861 upwards of 5 per cent. appear not to have been prosecuted.

The total number of persons declared bankrupt, whether trading singly or in partnership, was 1,222. These bankrupts are classified as follows:—bankers 3, (all in the London district); brokers, shipbrokers, billbrokers, scriveners, 30; merchants, agents, factors, warehousemen, 150; manufacturers, 237; tradesmen, shopkeepers, dealers, 509; victuallers, hotel and lodging-house keepers, coffee-house keepers, 113; cattle salesmen and agricultural dealers, 24; other classes, 156.

The number who passed their last examination was 1,027, or 84·0 per cent. of the number declared bankrupt.

The number declared bankrupt in 1860 was 1,430, of whom 1,028 or 71·9 per cent. passed their last examination.

Amount of debts.

The total amount of the debts of those who passed their last examination in 1861 was 3,894,322. In 1860 the amount was 4,478,037*l.*

The classification of the total debts in the balance sheets in 1861, was as follows:

Number of bankruptcies—

Under 300*l.* - -	73	10,000*l.* and under 20,000*l.* -	46
300*l.* and under 500*l.* -	116	20,000*l.* „ 50,000*l.* -	23
500*l.* „ 1,000*l.* -	265	50,000*l.* „ 100,000*l.* -	5
1,000*l.* „ 5,000*l.* -	420	Above 100,000*l.* - -	3
5,000*l.* „ 10,000*l.* -	61

The above large amount of debt averages 3,791*l.* for each case. This average in 1860 was 4,356*l.*

Of this debt 1,132,255*l.* or 29*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.* per cent. on the balance sheets was realized by the courts. For the year 1860 the amount realized was 27*l.* 18*s.* 3*d.* per cent. on the balance sheets.

The total amount of special charges and deductions for mortgages, liens, taxes, rents, &c. owing by the bankrupts' estates at the time of adjudication was 177,708*l.* The amount received by the official assignees for administration was 956,114*l.* The expenses of administration, which will be found in detail in the table, amounted to 310,722*l.* or 32*l.* 9*s.* 11*d.* per cent. on the amount for administration. In 1860 these charges were 30*l.* 9*s.* 8*d.* per cent. on the amount for administration.

By these expenses and charges the amount for administration is reduced more than one third (34·09 per cent.)

Debts amounting to 9,456*l.* were paid in full.

The sum of 657,053*l.* was the total amount ordered for dividend to the creditors.

This sum averaged 16*l.* 17*s.* 5*d.* per cent. on the total debts in the balance sheets, and 68*l.* 14*s.* 5*d.* per cent. on the amount received by the official assignees for administration. These averages in 1860 were respectively 16*l.* 11*s.* 5*d.* and 78*l.* 19*s.* 7*d.*

Rates of dividend.

The rates in the pound at which the dividends were ordered were,—

In 433 cases - -	Nil.
„ 588 „ - - -	Under 2*s.* 6*d.*
„ 231 „ - -	2*s.* 6*d.*	and under	5*s.*
„ 98 „ - - -	5*s.*	and under	7*s.* 6*d.*
„ 41 „ - -	7*s.* 6*d*	„	10*s.*
„ 27 „ - - -	10*s.*	„	15*s.*
„ 8 „ - -	15*s.*	„	20*s.*
„ 28 „ - -	20*s.*

Courts of Bankruptcy.

showing that in almost 30 per cent. of the cases the dividend was "Nil," while only in one in every 52 cases was the full amount of 20*s.* ordered.

Certificates adjudged.

The certificates granted were,—

First Class—Immediate	96
„ Suspended	—
Second Class—Immediate	354
„ Suspended	58
Third Class—Immediate	294
„ Suspended	188
Certificates refused:
With protection	—
Without protection	19

showing that, while in one only of every 10 of the cases a first class immediate certificate was granted, in 35·0 per cent. of the cases second class immediate certificates, in 29·2 per cent. of the cases third class immediate certificates were granted, and in upwards of one fourth of the cases the certificates were suspended or refused without protection, whereby the opinion of the Commissioners was marked that in all these cases culpability in a greater or less degree was exhibited in the bankrupts' transactions. Under the new Bankruptcy Act the classification of certificates is abolished.

Previous bankruptcies.

Another means of forming a judgment upon the cases is afforded by the previous bankruptcy, insolvency, composition, or arrangement of the bankrupts whose certificates were adjudicated upon. These are classified as follows for 1861, but the classification is incomplete owing to the omission of one of the courts to furnish the record:—

Nil	716
Once	170
Twice	32
Thrice	7
Above three times	—

Causes of bankruptcies.

Further, the Commissioners in going through the cases for the award of the certificates, noted, as follows, the apparent causes of the bankruptcies of the bankrupts whose cases were adjudicated upon:—

Reckless and unsound speculations, excessive trading	365
Interest, discount, accommodation bills, suretyship	152
Incompetence, neglect, personal extravagance	299
Unavoidable misfortunes	154

showing that in 15·9 per cent. only of the cases the bankruptcies were attributable to misfortunes, while in 84·1 per cent. of the cases they were owing to causes less deserving of compassion. Upon the whole these returns appear to exhibit a large degree of culpability, if not of criminality, in the portion of the trading community who pass through the courts of bankruptcy.

Appeals.

Upon the foregoing amount of business there were 33 appeals; in 11 of which the judgments were affirmed, in 9 reversed, in 10 varied; 3 were left pending or abandoned.

Business of each Court.

The proportion of the business transacted in each court was—

The London Court	44·5 per cent.
The Birmingham Court	16·9 „
The Leeds Court	11·6 „
The Manchester Court	8·2 „
The Liverpool Court	7·4 „
The Bristol Court	6·1 „
The Exeter Court	3·4 „
The Newcastle-on-Tyne Court	1·9 „

showing, as compared with 1860, a decrease of 4·1 per cent. in the proportion of the business transacted in the London Court; of 0·4 per cent. at Birmingham; an increase of 2·9 per cent. in the proportion of Leeds; a decrease of 1·1 per cent. in the proportion at Bristol; an increase of 1·6 per cent. in the proportion at Liverpool; an increase of 2·8 per cent. in the proportion at Manchester; a decrease of 0·8 per cent. in the proportion at Exeter, and a decrease of 0·9 per cent. in the proportion at Newcastle-on-Tyne.

The amount of dividend per cent. calculated on the amount of debts in the balance sheets was as follows for each court, showing the smallest amount of dividend, and consequently the greatest loss to creditors to have been at Newcastle, and at the other places in the reversed order to that in which they appear below:—

	£	s.	d.
The Leeds Court	24	19	1
The Exeter Court	19	14	9
The London Court	16	14	11
The Manchester Court	13	19	11
The Birmingham Court	13	13	5
The Liverpool Court	9	16	7
The Bristol Court	9	10	4
The Newcastle-upon-Tyne Court	8	14	3

Proceedings without Bankruptcy, (Table, p. 150.)

The proceedings for private arrangement under the control of the court without bankruptcy took place under the statute 12 & 13 Vict. c. 106, pursuant to which traders unable to meet their engagements might submit their affairs to the jurisdiction of the court, and obtain protection for person and property until further order, and release if in prison for debt.

As will be seen by the following statement, the number of petitions for private arrangement filed in 1861, up to the 11th October when the new Bankruptcy Act came into operation, was much in excess of the number in either of the complete preceding years.

The proceedings in each of the three years were—

	1861.	1860.	1859.
Petitions filed during the year, excepting those on which adjudications of bankruptcy have been made	230	180	93
Petitions in prosecution during the year under which resolutions of creditors have passed for vesting the estates of the petitioners—
In trustees or for carrying out a composition without the intervention of the official assignees	124	54	35
In the official assignee alone or jointly with others as trustees, or where he is otherwise a party to carrying out a composition	38	46	31
Total number of petitioning traders whether trading singly or in partnership	301	218	123

The classes of petitioners were:—bankers, 3; brokers, ship brokers, bill brokers, and scriveners, 10; merchants, agents, factors, and warehousemen, 99; manufacturers, 62; tradesmen, shopkeepers, dealers, 88; victuallers, hotel and lodging-house keepers, and coffee-house keepers, 13; cattle salesmen, agricultural dealers, 3; other classes, 23.

The total amount of debts in the balance sheets, or accounts filed by the petitioners was 1,443,478*l.*

The amount of the debts bears no relation to the gross produce of the estates in cases where the official assignee is trustee alone or jointly with others (returned as 33,113*l.*); as has been explained in previous years, the debts in the balance sheets refer to all cases in which the petitioners have filed their accounts, but the monies received relate only to those cases in which the official assignees have been appointed by the resolutions as the trustees, or the parties to pay any composition. In other cases where the estates have been assigned to or have vested in trustees, or a composition is paid by the petitioning trader without the intervention of the official assignees, the estates are practically withdrawn from the control of the court, and the accounts of the administration of the estates are not passed or filed in court.

COURTS OF BANKRUPTY.

The classification of the debts was as follows:—

Number of Petitions under £500				2
above 500 and under £1,000				7
1,000	„	5,000		77
5,000	„	10,000		35
10,000	„	20,000		16
20,000	„	50,000		12
50,000	„	100,000		4
100,000				2

The total amount received by the official assignees for administration was 32,017*l.* The expenses of administration which are given in detail in the table were 9,432*l.* or 29*l.* 9*s.* 2*d.* per cent. upon the amount received for administration.

The dividends or composition paid, after payment of special charges and deductions for mortgages, liens, rent, taxes, &c. amounting to 2,757*l.*, and of 69*l.* for debts payable in full, amounted to 18,016*l.*, and were at the following rates:—

In 12 cases	Nil.
„ 8 „	under 2*s.* 6*d.* in the £.
„ 8 „	2*s.* 6*d.* and under 5*s.*
„ 7 „	5*s.* and under 7*s.* 6*d.*
„ 1 „	7*s.* 6*d.* and under 10*s.*
„ 2 „	10*s.* and above.

One hundred and fifty-one certificates were granted of the resolutions or agreements of creditors, under section 216 of the Bankruptcy Law Consolidation Act, 1849. Twenty-two certificates were granted of the resolutions or agreements having been carried into effect. Eight petitions were filed for arrangements by deed. Seven orders were made declaring that the deeds or memoranda of arrangement were duly executed.

Debtors not being Traders, (Table, p. 151.)

Under the statutes of the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 70, and 23 & 24 Vict. c. 147, for facilitating arrangements between debtors not being traders and their creditors, and for granting protection in the mean time from arrest, 31 petitions were filed, 23 of which were by debtors not in custody, and 8 by debtors in custody. To 20 of the former, orders of protection were granted. To 7 of the latter orders of discharge from custody were granted with protection.

The petitioners came under the following classification:—professional men, 17; officers in the Army and Navy, 2; clerks, 2; other classes, 10.

The amount of debts in the schedules or accounts filed by the petitioners was 78,262*l.*

The classification of the debts, so far as given in the returns, was as follows:

Number of Petitions where the debts were—
£ 100 and under £ 300			1
300	„	500	—
500	„	1,000	—
1,000	„	5,000	5
5,000	„	10,000	4
10,000	„	20,000	2
20,000	„	50,000	1

The total produce of estates was 2,872*l.* The amount received by the official assignees for administration was 2,640*l.* The expenses of administration were 490*l.* or 18*l.* 11*s.* 2*d.* per cent. on the amount received for administration. The amount of dividend paid out of monies received for administration was 1,076*l.* The rates of dividend, so far as shown in the return, were in two cases under 2*s.* 6*d.* in the pound, and in two cases under 5*s.*

Winding-up Act, (Table, p. 152.)

The proceedings for the dissolution and winding-up of joint stock companies and other partnerships unable to meet their pecuniary engagements were as follows:—

Petitions against or by Joint Stock Companies under Winding-up Acts filed in the court	17
Cases remitted from the Court of Chancery	—
Orders made for winding-up	11
Petitions or orders for winding-up still pending, filed or made in this or previous years	40

The statute under which these proceedings take place is the 11 & 12 Vict. c. 45. The Bankruptcy Act of 1861 specially provides that nothing contained therein shall affect the first mentioned Acts or any of the Acts therein recited, or any Act amending such Act, except so far as regards the abolition of the fiat in bankruptcy, and the substitution of a petition for adjudication of bankruptcy. COURTS OF BANKRUPTCY.

The settlement of the affairs of the companies wound up within the period to which the abstract applies is shown in the following statement.

There were four appeals, in two of which the judgments were affirmed, in one reversed, and in one varied.

The jurisdiction of the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors having ceased from and after the 11th October 1861, except for the winding-up of petitions and matters presented to or depending in the court previously to that date, the returns relating to insolvency for 1861 embrace, as in the case of the bankruptcy returns for that year, a period of little more than nine months only. INSOLVENT DEBTORS' COURT, (Table, p. 153.) Jurisdiction discontinued.

For the future, all the jurisdiction, powers, and authority hitherto possessed by this court will be exercised by the Court of Bankruptcy; and consequently, the returns required to be made annually pursuant to the Bankruptcy Act will include all matters that would otherwise have appeared, as heretofore, under the head of the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

The number of petitions filed in the cases of imprisoned debtors for the portion of the year 1861 above referred to was 3,129, of which 18 were filed by creditors. Of this number, 683 were cases within the exclusive jurisdiction of the court in London; 2,446 were cases of insolvents imprisoned beyond those limits. Petitions filed in 1861.

This number exceeds by 309, or upwards of 10·0 per cent. the number for the whole of the year 1860. Of the 3,129 insolvents, 100 were professional men; 19 were officers in the Army or Navy; 92 were clerks; 1,742 were traders whose debts consequently did not exceed 300*l.* in each case; 18 were lodging-house keepers; 49 were shopmen; 239 were agents; 147 were manufacturers; 251 were mechanics; 128 were graziers, farmers, millers, &c.; and 341 belonged to other classes.

The number of schedules filed was 3,101, of which 666 were in cases within the jurisdiction of the court in London, 2,435 in cases beyond that limit. The proportion which the number of schedules filed bore to the number of petitions filed is 99·1 per cent. This proportion between the numbers for the year 1860 was 97·4 per cent. Schedules filed.

The large number of Petitions filed (under the Protection Acts, also, the number filed was in excess of the number for the whole of the preceding year) and the increased proportion of Schedules filed appears to indicate that a desire existed on the part of Insolvents for the settlement of their affairs under the provisions of the old law.

Insolvent Debtors' Court.

The classification of the debts in the cases in which schedules were filed was as follows:—

Under 100*l.*	187
100*l.* and under 300*l.*	803
300*l.* „ 500*l.*	728
500*l.* „ 1,000*l.*	753
1,000*l.* „ 3,000*l.*	480
3,000*l.* „ 5,000*l.*	75
5,000*l.* and above	75

In 55·4 per cent. of the cases the amount of debt in each case was under 500*l.*

Previous insolvency.

Of the insolvents in whose cases schedules were filed 20·8 per cent. had been before insolvent or bankrupt; 510 or 16·4 per cent. once; 27 twice; 25 three times; and 15 more than three times. In 1860 19·1 per cent. had been once before insolvent or bankrupt. The proportionate numbers of those who had been twice, three times, and more than three times were also higher than in 1861.

The following table shows the numbers who appeared before the Insolvent Court and the County Courts respectively, and the results in both cases:—

Estates realized.

The number of estates realized was 240. The amount of dividend declared thereon, 29,202*l.* 1*s.* 11*d.*; 84 of the estates with 14,263*l.* 15*s.* 0*d.* were within the London district; 156 of the estates, and 14,938*l.* 6*s.* 11*d.* dividend in the jurisdiction of the County Courts. The distribution of the latter estates would be returned to the court in London.

Expenses of administration.

The total of the expenses of administration and other payments was 6,700*l.* 5*s.* 6*d.*, of which 3,000*l.* 18*s.* 9*d.* belonged to the court in London, 3,699*l.* 6*s.* 9*d.* to the County Courts. The details of this expenditure are given in the table. The amount which remained for dividend was 22,501*l.* 16*s.* 5*d.*, upon scheduled debts amounting to 450,978*l.* 8*s.* 10*d.*, of which 279,811*l.* 19*s.* 7*d.* was ascertained for dividend. Each estate realized therefore averaged 121*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*; the expenses of administration averaged 27*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.* (in the London jurisdiction, 35*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*; in the County Courts 23*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.*); the amount for dividend averaged 93*l.* 14*s.* 8*d.*

The dividends averaged 4*l.* 9*s.* 8*d.* per cent. on the amount of the scheduled debts, and 8*l.* 0*s.* 4*d.* on the amount ascertained for dividend, and were at the following rates in the pound in each case:—

Under 1*s.*	80	10*s.* and under 15*s.*	7
1*s.* and under 2*s.* 6*d*	79	15*s.* „ 20*s.*	—
2*s.* 6*d.* and under 5*s.*	46	20*s.*	5
5*s.* and under 10*s.*	22

In 25 other cases with scheduled debts amounting to 37,168*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.* (16 cases and 25,483*l.* 19*s.* 6*d.* debt in the London jurisdiction, and 9 cases with 11,684*l.* 3*s.* 0*d.* debt in the country) the debts were satisfied by payment, or otherwise recorded during the period to which the returns apply, the debtor showing all to be paid or released.

As the returns for 1861 apply to a portion of the year only, a comparison with the returns for the full preceding year would be deceptive.

Protection Acts, (Table, p. 154.)

The Protection Acts of the 5 & 6 Vict. c. 116. and 7 & 8 Vict. c. 96., (which are now repealed, the former wholly, the latter in part,) applied to the cases of traders whose debts were less than 300*l.*, and to other debtors. They required that upon a petition being filed a full schedule of the petitioner's debts should be annexed, and a statement of the amount of his property and of the monies owing to him. These conditions being complied with, an order protecting the petitioner from arrest was granted; the property was then vested in assignees and realized and distributed as in other cases of insolvency. The jurisdiction under these Acts was exercised by the Insolvent Debtors' Court in London in all cases where the debtor resided within 20 miles of the General Post Office, and by the County Courts in all other cases.

Number of petitions filed.

The number of petitions and schedules filed under these Acts in 1861 was 3,228, of which 1,051 or 32·5 per cent. were in the jurisdiction of the Court in London, and 2,167 or 67·1 per cent. in the jurisdiction of the County Courts. Of these petitions 69 were by professional men; 11 by officers in the army or navy; 113 by clerks; 2,294 by traders; 21 by lodging-house keepers; 35 by shopmen; 72 by agents; 34 by manufacturers; 102 by mechanics; 90 by graziers, farmers, millers, &c.; and 380 by other classes.

The classified amount of the scheduled debts of the insolvents was—

Under 100*l.* - -	509
100*l.* and under 300*l.* - -	2,508
300*l.* „ 500*l.* -	93
500*l.* „ 1,000*l.* -	55
1,000*l.* „ 3,000*l.* -	42
3,000*l.* „ 5,000*l.* -	12
5,000*l.* and above - -	7

In 96·4 of the foregoing cases the amount of the debt was under 500*l.* Of the total number of petitioners 8·1 per cent. had been before insolvent or bankrupt; 223 once; 33 twice; 5 three times; and 2 more than three times.

DIVORCE AND MATRIMONIAL CAUSES COURT.

The return for Her Majesty's Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes has been made by the senior registrar under the same heads for the year 1861 as for the preceding years. It is however, to be observed that by the amending Act, 23 & 24 Vict. c. 144, the Judge ordinary represents the full court, and that therefore the causes heretofore returned as having been tried before the full court are now included in those heard before the Judge ordinary. The senior registrar has further appended a note to the effect that appeals to the House of Lords are lodged in the House of Lords and not in the Registry for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes.

The following summary shows the proceedings in the court for the year ended 31 December 1861, placed in comparison with the proceedings for each of the preceding years since the establishment of the court:—

Since the transfer to the Court of Divorce and Matrimonial Causes of the jurisdiction which formerly belonged to the Ecclesiastical Courts in matrimonial matters, and matters relating to the grant or revocation of probate of wills and letters of administration, the judicial functions exercised by the latter are confined to the Arches Courts of the two provinces of Canterbury and York, and the several diocesan Consistory Courts; and the judicial business transacted in these courts, is limited in amount. The following summary shows the total proceedings and the results in each of the three years to which the returns extend. The proceedings in each court, in 1861, are given in the table.

The total cases in each of the three last years were:—

	1861.	1860.	1859.
Number of appeals entered	78	67	59

There was one case of a petition specially referred.

House of Lords. (Table, p. 171.)

The judicial proceedings of the House of Lords are shown in a return furnished by the Clerk of the Parliaments.

The return distinguishes the number of appeals and causes presented from each of the Courts of Chancery and Exchequer Chamber for England and Ireland, the Court of Session, Scotland, the Courts of Probate for England and Ireland, and the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes for England, and shows the nature of the causes, the number withdrawn, the number dismissed, the number heard, with the result of hearing, and the number remaining for hearing, in each of the above named courts.

The number of appeals and causes in error presented in each of the following years was :—

	1861.	1860.	1859.	1858.
From the Court of Chancery—
England	16	30	20	13
Ireland	10	16	5	2

The proceedings in 1861 comprised 22 appeals and causes in error in matters of real property, 29 in matters of personal property, 7 in matters of real and personal property, and 6 miscellaneous causes, including one divorce case. 7 causes were withdrawn (including the divorce case); 13 were dismissed for want of prosecution; 45 were heard, 23 of which were simply affirmed; 1 was affirmed with declaration; 4 were varied; 3 were simply reversed; 9 were reversed with declarations, &c.; 5 were heard, but withdrawn prior to judgment, in part heard, dismissed at bar, or remitted. 26 causes remained for hearing. In 1860, 27 causes, in 1859, 49, in 1858 also 49 remained for hearing at the close of the session.

The total amount of fees in 1861 was 2,528*l.* 18*s.*; in 1860, it was 2,493*l.* 2*s.* 6*d.*; in 1859, 2,023*l.*; in 1858, 1,791*l.* 2*s.*

With this return the second part of the Judicial Statistics for 1861 is brought to a conclusion.
